AN OLD LETTER

The following letter was written to Mrs. Martha Nunnelly of Centerville, by her son, John Nunnelly, from Washington, Arkansas, and bears date June 15, 1843. The writer was an uncle of W. P. Griner, near Centreville, and W. S. Nunnelly, of Vernon. The many relatives of the writer will appreciate this relic of the past:

" Dear Old Mother:—— I now acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated the 7th of May, and was truly gratified to hear that you and my distant relatives were all in general health and propperous in condition. These few lines leave myself and family in general health, thanks be to the most high God for His mercy. I have been very much pleased to hear brother Alexander has been to see you all and that you were all in good health and fine spirits. I was also glad that he succeeded in obtaining some part of his late estate from the executors and I approve of your disposition in Tom. I hope it will be satisfactory to all the heirs as it has been to me. I hope, dear mother, as you have disposed of your property and given up the cares of housekeeping you will now enjoy yourself among your children. You have striven hard and successfully raised your children and now you should endeavor to consult your ease and pleasure and make your last days as happy as your youthful days were prosperous. You have given yourself up to your children. I hope I shall be taken into consideration for my part of your time as your presence would be a source of much pleasure to me and all my family. I met my brother Grinder very unexpectedly and was glad to see him and hear from you and all my distant relatives, though his stay was short and I was not able to ask half as many questions as I wanted to. I hope these little presents to my sisters and you came safely to hand and were received as a testimonial of my love and the esteem of one who will be ever dear to my memory while it lasts or virtue receives her just reward. Dear mother, as I have not written to all my brothers and sisters separately, I request you to show these few lines to brother Lawson, Jackson, Hornbeak, Foster and Grinder and all of their families as you take the rounds among them. I hope it will not put you to any additional trouble. They will be gratified with your visit and pleased to hear from me, which will be double joy. I have just returned home from New Orleans. I did not buy any negroes as the season was well advanced and they were worth $550.00 which I think high. They must still sell lower in Arkansas in the course of this year. I carried home 50 eagles of Benton's gold drops and one box of silver containing $1,000 which is ready for good bargains. My present crop is the most unpromising I have seen for several years, owing to the cold rains and destructive insects. The stand of cotton is bad and very small. Very little fruit. I think the spring has been more backward than any I have seen here, but as the comet has taken its exit we may expect more favorable weather and shortly better times. Dear mother, stimulate my friends to write to me as often as they can and I shall do so. Please remember our love to all my brothers, sisters, cousins and inquiring friends generally and accept for yourself this tribute of respect from your ever dutiful son and daughter until death. May God bless you all, my dearly beloved mother and relatives.

John W. and Mary Ann Nunnelly

(Copied January 10, 1966, by Elizabeth Dannelly Payne, from a typed copy sent her by Mrs. J. E. Griner, 1238 So. Madison, Jonesboro, Arkansas.)

Attached to the John W. and Mary Ann Nunnelly letter is a yellowed newspaper clipping, undated, which states:

"W. S. Nunnelly, 72, one of the best known citizens of Hickman County, died at his home in Vernon Monday. Deceased was a great friend of Thomas A. Edison, who made his home at the Nunnelly residence while visiting this section in search of cobalt several years ago. Nunnelly had also visited Edison at his home in New Jersey and they were fond of each other."

still engaged in this pursuit, at which he has been quite successful. He was in the Confederate army during the late war. J. F. Ward was educated in Alabama, and came to Arkansas in 1875, tilling the soil in Howard County for four years. In 1880 he engaged in the saloon business at Nashville, Ark., but in 1884 and 1885 carried on a grocery store, in 1886 returning to the saloon business. In 1887 he removed to this place, and here has continued this latter occupation. He was city alderman while living at Nashville, held this position for two terms, and was one of the leading men. He is a prominent citizen of this county, and one of the live business men. He and his partner, Mr. Josey, do an extensive business in their line. Mr. Ward was married in 1888 to Miss E. Morris, and the result of this union has been one child.

John C. Ware is associated with Mr. Williams in the general mercantile business in Washington, and since their establishment was opened in 1890, they have done well. They carry a large, well-selected stock of goods valued at $10,000, and are well known throughout Hempstead as well as the surrounding counties. Mr. Ware was born in what was known formerly as Sevier County, but now Little River County, Ark., in 1853, his parents, Dr. U. H. and N. L. (Nunneley) Ware, having been born in Virginia and Tennessee, respectively. They were married in Sevier County, and when the subject of this sketch was a boy they removed to Clarksville, Tex., where Dr. Ware had lived from boyhood, and where he died in 1878. His widow is now living in Nashville, a worthy Christian lady. The Doctor graduated from a medical college of New Orleans, under the celebrated Dr. Stone, and practiced for some time in a hospital there, and during the war was surgeon in the Confederate army in Ganot's brigade of a Texas regiment. He was a Master Mason. His father, Dr. John Ware, was a Virginian, who, in 1842, removed to what is now Red River County, Tex. (it then being a Territory), being one of the first settlers of that region, and there spent the remainder of his days, dying in 1864, having also been a successful physician. He was of Scotch-Irish descent. The maternal grandfather, John Nunneley, was a Tennesseean, who married in his native State, and about 1844 came to Sevier (now Little River) County, Ark., where he died in 1850, a wealthy planter. John C. Ware is the second of three children, and received his education in the male college of Columbia, Tenn., and after clerking in Clarksville, Tex., for some time he removed to Ultima Thule, Ark., and was there in the mercantile business until 1878, when he came to Washington, and for five years was book-keeper for Stewart & Holman. In 1883 he embarked in business on his own account, and has since been considered one of the successful merchants of the place. Florence, the daughter of Alfred O. and Sarah Stuart, became his wife in 1882, her birth having occurred in Washington. Her father and mother were born in Hempstead County, and died in Washington in 1883 and 1878, respectively. The father was a wealthy planter until 1878, but afterward followed merchandising until his death. His father was Monroe Stewart. Mr. Ware is a Democrat, his first presidential vote being cast for Tilden, in 1876, and since twenty-one years of age he has been a member of the A. F. & A. M., and also belongs to the K. of H., being chief of Washington Lodge.

S. R. Watson, one of the most successful farmers and stock-raisers of Hempstead County, resides in De Roane Township, and was born in Georgia, on September 11, 1844, the third in a family of seven children born to William and Eliza (Lain) Watson, the former of whom is still living at the ripe old age of seventy-four years, and the latter died in 1855. The father, a farmer by occupation, came to Arkansas in 1868, settling in this county, where he has ever since made his home. Of the seven children born to them, only three survive, viz.: S. R. (the subject of this sketch), Mary F. (wife of M. M. Baxter of this county), and Martha (wife of W. J. McAdams). In 1861 the subject of this sketch enlisted in the Confederate cause, joining Company H, Nineteenth Georgia Regiment of Infantry, and served under Stonewall Jackson until his death, participating in all the battles fought by that general, with the exception of Harpers Ferry, after which he served in the Army of Virginia, and was in all the battles fought by that army except Jonesboro N. C. He was at Fort Sumter at the time it was blown up, and in the battle of Lake City, Fla., being in Gen. Coquitt's Georgia brigade, and Mr. Watson says that for the length of time of the engagement, and the size of the army, this last was the hardest and hottest fight he was ever in. At Gaines Mill, Va., he was shot through the left arm, breaking the bone, which incapacitated him for duty but a short time, indeed he was only out of the service six weeks during the whole war. In the latter part of 1863 Mr. Watson was commissioned first lieutenant of his company, and served as such until the close of the war, being one of the youngest commissioned officers in the army, and at the close of the war was in command of three companies.

ASSOCIATED WITH FRANK JAMES

Sam H. Nunneley, San Antonio, Texas

I was born in Hickman county, Middle Tennessee, April 3, 1851, and in 1869 I started to Texas. I arrived at Memphis on a train, then the terminus of all roads going west. There I took the steamer, Bismarck, down the Mississippi to the mouth of Red River, and up Red River, to Soda and Caddo Lakes to Jefferson, Texas. I had lots of sport shooting alligators on the trip. From Jefferson I traveled in a freight wagon drawn by eight yoke of oxen to Bowie county. The next year I saddled my horse and pulled out for West Texas, landing at McKinney, Collin county, where I met Townsend Megeath, and we traveled together, slept together and that winter we stayed with Sam Hilderbran, which was an assumed name I learned in after years. Mr. Megeath turned out to be Frank James. Both were good, unassuming gentlemen in every way. It was from this county I made my first trip over the trail with Sneed, Clonch and Gatling. I made one trip with horses to Mississippi and after selling them I went down into Florida, where I remained all winter, then went to New Orleans and Shreveport, and on to San Antonio, and then out to Uvalde, where I went to work helping drive over the trail for Hughes, Nunn, Hood and Birchfield. We had fourteen thousand cattle cut into four herds, and we drove them to Wichita, Kansas. This was in 1875. After all were sold I came back to Texas on the train to Seguin, and there took the stage to San Antonio, and stayed all night at the well-known Menger Hotel. Next morning I purchased a saddle for $40 and a horse for $16 and rode to Uvalde. There I fell in with a bunch of fellows, eleven in all, and we started horseback to Silver City, New Mexico, a distance of 900 miles. We went there to live but nobody lived there outside of government forts except wild Indians, so we started back to Texas, coming to Fort Stanton, down the Pecos River to Horsehead Crossing, then across the plains ninety-five miles without water to the head waters of the Concho River. There I killed my last buffalo. I spent two weeks with a buffalo hunter there who had killed that season upwards of 5,000 buffaloes for their hides and tongues. He sold the hides to Fort Worth people at six bits to a dollar each.

SAM H. NUNNELEY

From Johnson county I drove 125 horses to Arkansas for a Mr. Sparks. I bought beef cattle in the Indian Territory from the Indians for four years, and drove them to the Hot Springs market, then bought cattle in Arkansas to drive to Kansas, but sold them to the chief of the Choctaw Nation, after which I went back to Arkansas and engaged in the mercantile business for awhile. I was in the "run" in Oklahoma, and helped to make a state out of the Territory of Oklahoma. I now live in San Antonio.

THE TANKERSLEY FAMILY

By Mary Tankersley Lewis, San Angelo, Texas

Richard Franklin Tankersley was born February 19, 1828, in Mississippi. Moved to Texas in 1853, stopping for awhile at Round Rock, Williamson county, afterward living in Cherokee county, then in San Saba, then in Brown county, and from there moved to the head of the South Concho River, in Tom Green county, which was not organized until many years later. He served in the Texas Rangers from 1863 to 1865.

Only slaves over 5 and under 60 were assessed, therefore above figures do not give the accurate number of negroes in 1861. Elsewhere in this book are found claims of certain families having numerous slaves. While no attempt is made to confirm or disclaim these statements, assessment records give an entirely different picture.

Tradition has it that the freed slaves listed in Magazine Township were those of the McCray family. That these freed slaves were slave owners can not be confirmed.

HISTORY OF YELL COUNTY

DISTRIBUTION OF SLAVES

Dardanelle, Arkansas

DISTRIBUTION OF SLAVES AND THEIR ASSESSED VALUE

In the census report of 1 June 1840, following is the number of slaves per township. At this time only five townships made up this county which was still a part of Pope County.

Township	Male Slaves	Female Slaves	Freed Males	Freed Females
Galley Rock	7	5
Dardanelle	5	3
Riley	24	19
Magazine	9	10	5	3

Ages shown for slaves were generally under 30 years with those under 10 years making up most of the slave population. At Dardanelle, one slave was listed as being over 100.

A complete list of slave owners and the number follows. This list is accurate according to the tax records of 1861, however, does not confirm claims that certain people were large slave owners.

1868 LIST OF REGISTERED VOTERS FOR YELL CO., ARKANSAS 1868

From the Yell Co., Arkansas, courthouse records, Danville, copied and compiled by: Syble Vodrazka typed by: Mary V. Humphrey

This list was in the very first quarterly published by the Yell Co. Hist. Society, Robbie Rowlette, Editor in Vol. 1, No. 1 July 1977. We have discussed this many times and believe it should be re-run since we did not have many members at the time it was run and we have no more of the old quarterlies left.

County Clerk
Wayne County
Waynesboro, TN 38485

I would very much like to obtain a copy of an estate settlement in your county which pertains to an Anderson Nunley (Nunneley). I have been told this estate settlement is recorded 2 July 1849, but do not know the county book number. If it is possible to find it by date alone, I would much appreciate it.

I am enclosing a check for $5.00 which I hope will cover copy of this record and a self-addressed, stamped, envelope. If the cost is more, please advise.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

was to keep the various descendants straight.

Early in the last century a number of the second generation started emigrating to other states in search of cheaper and better land. Shortly before Robert's death he had purchased 1000 acres of land in Bedford Co., Tenn. He willed this 250 acres to his eldest son William, the remainder to be divided equally among his four younger sons, John, James, Robert, Jr., and Thomas. A few years after Robert's death, which occurred in 1810, John, James, and Robert, Jr., went to Bedford county to settle on their land. The oldest son William (my great grandfather) and the youngest son Thomas preferred to remain in North Carolina and must have sold their land to three of their brothers-in-law, as three of the sisters, Elizabeth (Mrs. William Andrews), Sarah (Mrs. James W. Bradshaw), and Martha (Mrs. Samuel R. Garrison) also went to Bedford county with their children...

ELIZABETH SANDELS NUNNELLY'S CAREER AT VERNON RELATED

by Minnie E. Beasley and Eleanor Graham

Hickman Times - 18 July 1957

Elizabeth Sandels Nunnelly of Vernon is remembered by her grandchildren as the "grand lady of their childhoods." She was, they say, a small person, erect, dignified, gracious, with blue eyes and white hair. They remember her in her eighties, wearing black alpaca with white lace at the throat, coming into the parlor at night to listen to music or to greet guests.

Jerome Spence in his history...says that she was refined, intelligent and well educated. She lives today far beyond the allotted three score years and ten, and when she goes Hickman county will lose one of its noblest women, one who has few equals and no superiors.

...She has lived on two continents, crossed the ocean in a sailing vessel, had a career in a day when few women had careers, and, following her marriage at the age of 36, reared a family. She had also known war. During the War Between the States, she defied Federal soldiers who had looted her home.

Elizabeth Sandels was born in Tyrone Co., Ireland, June 11, 1814. Her father was a doctor and her uncle was a physician at the American court. In 1843 Elizabeth's two brothers, graduates of the University of Dublin, one an Episcopal clergyman and the other a physician decided to come to the New World. Elizabeth, then 29, decided to come with them.

Following a short stay in New York during which the brother who was a physician died, John Sandels went to Gambrier, Ohio, where he became a professor at Kenyon college. Later when he became rector of the caste in [illegible]

Episcopal church in Franklin, Elizabeth Sandels became a teacher at the distinguished school for girls, the Athenaeum in Columbia.

Meanwhile, Lawson Nunnelly's wife had died at their home in Vernon, leaving him with three daughters. He sent them to the Athenaeum in Columbia. On a visit to the girls, Lawson Nunnelly of Hickman county, met Elizabeth Sandels of Ireland. Just what happened on this occasion we can only surmise, but we know that when the school term ended, Elizabeth Sandels was invited to come to Vernon for a visit.

Following this visit to Vernon, Elizabeth went to Thibodeaux, La., to live with her brother who was then rector of a parish there. A letter from Elizabeth Sandels to Lawson Nunnelly, dated Oct. 9, 1849, reveals a pleasant life in Louisiana. She tells of a recent cruise with her brother's family on the Gulf of Mexico. "We traveled to some islands in the gulf and spent some time on the coast enjoying the sea air and visiting friends."

However, the most interesting feature of the letter is a determined refusal on the part of the lady to marry Mr. Nunnelly. She enumerates the reasons. "You say your farm is good," she says. "It is. But is it not at the end of creation? Furthermore," she went on, "you have business carried on which I know nothing whatever, I mean, weaving and spinning. There is neither church, nor pastor there, and no society. I am not desirous of a gay circle of society but I like some."

Lawson Nunnelly answered the letter by going to Louisiana. He and Elizabeth Sandels were married at the home of the Richard Gordons near Columbia in June 1850. Bishop Otey of the Episcopal Church performed the ceremony.

Two children were born to this union: Walter Sandels Nunnelly, who carried on extensive farming, merchandising and mining operations at Vernon, and Anne Boldwin Nunnelly, who married Judge Henry Meeks of Nashville.

Fortunately, Elizabeth Sandels kept a diary which describes in detail the life at Vernon. During the War Between the States, Federal soldiers on their way south camped on the lawn at Vernon. Federal officers took over the house. After the officers left, soldiers looted the smoke house, stole the horses and mules and demanded Lawson Nunnelly give them his gun. The latter he refused to do. They tied him on a horse and announced that he would be taken to prison and at this point Elizabeth Sandels stormed into the yard; climbed up on the horse behind her husband, and told the soldiers she was going where they took him.

Meanwhile a Negro found the gun and gave it to the soldiers, who then released the prisoners. Soon after the soldiers left, Walter Nunnelly, then a boy of 14, discovered that his pony had been stolen. He got on an old blind mule, the only animal left on the place, and went in pursuit of the Federals. The commanding officer of the troops who had stayed at the Nunnelly home had promised the boy that his pony would not be taken. Walter overtook the Federal army, and found the officer. The next afternoon the boy returned home riding the pony and leading the blind mule. Elizabeth Sandels Nunnelly had not slept for 36 hours.

The diary tells of the many activities of busy people on the farm in the 70s and 80s. Entries in the diary describe the weather, the work of the hands, work in the household, and special occasions. Many of the entries end with a brief prayer. Following are a few exerpts from the diary.

March 15, 1872--A lovely day. Cousin Frank and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Shouse came about 10 o'clock. We had a delicious turkey and boiled ham for dinner, boiled custard and cocoanut cake. In the evening we had delightful music with the piano, violin, flutina and much singing. We enjoyed a regular feast of music. The company stayed all night.

April 17, 1872--Today is Annie's birthday. Mrs. Cloyd addressed a very beautiful piece of poetry to my darling daughter.

June 27, 1872--The young people started to Nashville today to the Exposition. (Not the centennial which was 1896).

June 29, 1872--About two or three o'clock the young people got home. They were perfectly delighted with their trip, but very much fatigued. They all had to take a nap in the afternoon.

July 3, 1872--We are reading David Copperfield.

Sept. 20, 1872--My dear son got home from Nashville this afternoon and brought a handsome barouche for our use. He also brought sugar, coffee, rice, candles, a dress, parasol, and sash for Nellie and a dress for me. We are all pleased with the things he got.

Oct. 21, 1872--Nellie and I went to Pinewood and spent the day with the Grahams. After dinner we went to see the mill and had a pleasant time. Walter and all the hands raced today picking cotton. Walter won. Twelve pounds.

Dec. 25, 1872--This morning all the colored people came early to catch us "Christmas Gift!" The girls made refreshments and Walter gave them gifts. They had a gay time. Tonight they got violins and serenaded us all around the house.

were they took him.

Meanwhile a Negro found the gun and gave it to the soldiers, who then released the prisoners. Soon after the soldiers left, Walter Donnelly, then a boy of 12, discovered that his pony had been stolen. He got on an old blind mule, the only animal left on the place, and went in pursuit of the Federals. The commanding officer of the troops who had stayed at the Donnelly home had promised the boy that his pony would not be taken. Walter overtook the Federal army, and found the officer. The next afternoon the boy returned home riding the pony and leading the blind mule. Elizabeth Daniels Donnelly had not slept for 30 hours.

The diary tells of the many activities of busy people on the farm in the 70s and 80s. Entries in the diary concerns the weather, the work of the hands, work in the household, and special occasions. Many of the entries end with a brief prayer. Following are a few items from the diary.

Friday, June 13, 1873 -- This is the anniversary of my marriage. Twenty-three years ago today I came to Vernon. We had a letter from my little darling (Annie who was attending St. Cecilia) today in which she says cholera is very bad in Nashville. Bless, O Lord, and save my child. We have concluded for my dear boy to go to Nashville tomorrow.

Saturday, June 14, 1873 -- My darling son started in the buggy for his sister this morning. Yesterday's paper gave a very bad account of cholera in Nashville. Bless, O Lord, my children and guard them from disease and lead them home in safety. Bless us as a family and make us Christians in heart and in life.

Monday, June 16, 1873 -- We looked for our dear absent children anxiously. They came a little after 4 o'clock. Oh, the joy of having all at home. My dear little daughter, although tired, gave us some sweet music tonight in the parlor. O, Lord, make us humble and thankful for all thy mercies.

January 6, 1874 -- Mr. Nunnelly rode over to Mr. Holmes to have him as witness to his will. He sealed it in an envelope and put it away. I trust that God will take me ere I see it opened.

January 13, 1874 -- I had to give up my knitting today to weave a hearth rug.

October 18, 1874 -- All the young people went to the fair in Centerville today. Nellie and Mattie went in the buggy. Walter went on horseback. All the Negroes went. Everyone enjoyed the fair. We took eight prizes and two certificates.

Monday, Jan. 4, 1875 -- We are preparing for the wedding. I employed Julia to assist us. We are baking ckaes, grating cocoanut and making ambrosia.

Jan. 6, 1875 -- Julia and I baked turkey, chicken, and ham. The girls set the table. We had a genteel company--the Phillips, Miss Paulina Gray, the Pinewood people, and some of the young people of the neighborhood. Mr. Holmes performed the ceremony. May those who were married (Walter Nunnelly and Eleanor Phillips) be happy in time and throughout eternity.

Elizabeth Sandels Nunnelly was a devout Episcopalian. Bishop Gailor came to Vernon several times to hold special services for her and her family.

She died in 1902 at the age of 83. She is buried at Vernon.

Kingston Springs, Tenn., May 14, 1865.

Lieut. JOHN D. RIELLY,
Actg. Asst. Adjt. Gen., Third Sub-Dist. of Middle Tennessee:

LIEUTENANT: In conformance with the request of the lieutenant-colonel commanding I have the honor to submit the following statement of the facts relative to the atrocious murder of some twenty-six men belonging to General Cooper's command during the month of November last: Mr. Lawson Nunnely, a citizen residing near Vernon, Tenn., states that when General Cooper passed through that neighborhood on his way to Centerville a number of his men, from fatigue and sore feet, straggled some distance in rear of his command, were overpowered, and after surrendering were murdered in cold blood and robbed by the guerrillas. Mr. Nunnely said the colored men employed on his plantation buried eighteen men who had been murdered in that manner. He also stated that a soldier, being unable to march from sore feet, took refuge in his (Nunnely's) house. The guerrillas drove the man from the house and shot him. Another citizen stated he had helped to bury eleven men murdered in the manner above mentioned. The citizens on Piney River, in the vicinity of Vernon, all corroborate the above facts. They all agree that there were at least twenty-six men shot. They say the murders were committed by Captain Cross' gang of guerrillas; that Captain Cross and his officers were personally cognizant of the above circumstances. Captain Cross acknowledged to me that Lieut. W. L. Clark, assistant inspector defenses Nashville and Northwestern Railroad, who was captured November 21, 1864, was shot, after surrendering, by a man named Kingston; belonged to his (Cross') command.

I am, lieutenant, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

GEO. M. EVERETT,
Captain, Twelfth U. S. Colored Infantry.

History of Tennessee - Goodspeed 1887

Wayne County

Thomas F. Acklin is one of the firm Mays & Acklin, liverymen of Clifton. They established their business Apr. 1, 1886, and keep a full and excellent line of vehicles, the best in town or county. They deal quite extensively in horses and mules, and in connection, in Jan. 1885, established a retail liquor store, which they have conducted with fair success up to the present time. Thomas F. Acklin is a son of Cleaburn and Martha (McCreley) Acklin, who were born in Tennessee and North Carolina respectively. Thomas F. is a native of Wayne County, born May 15, 1845, and was reared to manhood on a farm. He enlisted in the Confererate Army in 1861, and served in Co. F, 48th Tenn. Inf. for over three years, and in the 20th Regt. Tenn. Cav. the remainder of the war. From the time of his return home until Dec. 1882, he tilled the soil, and at the latter date he came to Clifton and has since been engaged in the livery business. Previous to this he kept a hotel in Saltillo for some time. In 1871 he united his fortunes with those of Sarah M. Nunley, and two children have blessed their union: Tempie and James. Mr. Acklin is a Democrat and one of the eminent business men of Clifton.

Hickman County

Walter S. Nunnelly, merchant, farmer and stock raiser, was born where he now resides Apr. 12, 1851, son of Lawson H. and Elizabeth (Sandels) Nunnelly, and is of English-Irish extraction. Lawson Nunnelly was born in N.C., Oct. 31, 1801, and immigrated to Tennessee about 1815, and was one of the most energetic and hardest working men of Hickman County. He was known far and wide as the "friend of the poor man." He was very charitable, and his death, which occurred Sept. 7, 1885 , was lamented by all. His wife was born in the Emerald Isle June 11, 1841, and came to America in 1843, locating in Knox County, Ohio. She came to Tenn. in 1847, and is a resident of Old Vernon. She is a sister of Prof. John Sandels, who for a number of years was a professor at Kenyon College, Ohio. He was born in Ireland, came to America in 1843, and died in La. in 1878. Our subject is the elder of two children. The other, Annie E. (Now Mrs. M.H. Meek) was married Dec. 31, 1880, and is a resident of Savannah, Tenn. Our subject acquired a fine business and literary education, and owns the old Nunnelly homestead. He owns 1,600 acres of land, and is extensively engaged in raising stock. He began merchandising at Old Vernon in 1882, and has since continued. Jan. 12, 1875, he married Nettie Phillips, who was born in Hickman County in 1853. They have four children: Elise, Harry, Kate and Annie. Mr. Nunnelly is a Democrat, and he and wife are members of the Episcopal Church.

History of Tenn. – Goodspeed 1887 oldest cotton buyer outside of Memphis, in West Tennessee. His father was a soldier in the war of 1812, and afterward wrote some very interesting articles about the same, which have been handed down to posterity as history.

Rev. Edward B. McNeil was born in Franklin County, Tenn., August 13, 1837; son of Alfred D. and Ruth (Corn) McNeil, natives, respectively, of Tennessee and Virginia. Edward B. McNeil was taken by his parents to Mississippi, when he was about twelve years of age and there resided until twenty years of age. He then entered Union University at Murfreesboro, Tenn., but was obliged to give up school life, owing to the breaking out of the war. He enlisted in the Confederate Army and served three years and nine months in the Forty-first Regiment Mississippi Infantry. In April, 1866, he was ordained a regular minister in the Baptist Church and followed his chosen calling for twelve years at Booneville, Miss. In 1881 he came to Jackson, Tenn., where he has since resided, being in charge of several churches in West Tennessee. October 13, 1867, he married Miss Jessie A. Kittredge, who was born in Louisiana. She died December 7, 1883, having borne six sons. Mr. McNeil has been local editor of the Jackson Dispatch for the past year. He is a Democrat, a Mason and a member of the K. of H.

F. H. Mayo, a prominent merchant of this city, was born in this county in 1846, and is the son of C. B. and Caroline Mayo. The father is a farmer by occupation. The mother died in 1866, and in 1884 the father married Mrs. Clay Kendrick. Our subject was reared to the age of seventeen on the farm, then enlisted in the Confederate service, Company G, Thirteenth Tennessee Regiment, in Gen. N. B. Forrest's cavalry, and remained two years, being the close of the war. In 1867 he came to this city, and after spending some months clerking, engaged in the mercantile business, which he continues up to the present time, and has become very popular, having recently agreed to furnish the members of the Agricultural Wheel all their goods at reduced prices. In politics he is a stanch Democrat.

Marcus H. Meeks is a native of McNairy County, Tenn., and was born May 9, 1852, being the son of John H. and Eleanor (Atkins) Meeks, natives respectively of Tennessee and North Carolina. The father is now a prominent citizen and farmer of McNairy County. Marcus H. was reared on his father's farm, securing a good education in youth, taking a special course in the University of Tennessee, at Knoxville. In 1876 he entered the Lebanon Law School, and in 1877 graduated therefrom, and then began to practice in his native county. In August, 1878, he was elected attorney-general of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, and served one term of eight years. In August, 1886, he came to Jackson, and began practicing with the firm of Pitts & Hays, under the firm name of Pitts, Hays & Meeks, and has continued thus until the present. December 1, 1880, he was united in marriage with Miss Annie Baldwin Nunnelly, of Hickman County. They have two children—Emmett A. and Loraine. Mr. Meeks is a Democrat, and he and wife are members of the Christian Church.

Keith S. Moffat, a prominent grocer of this city, was born in Florida in 1854, and is the son of Alexander and Margie A. (Singletary) Moffat. The father was born in Scotland and came to Florida, where he married. He was a carpenter by trade and had a family of four children. The father died in 1865. The mother lives in this city. Our subject was reared to manhood in Florida, having come to this place in 1878. After coming to the city he was employed on the Mobile & Ohio Railroad, which engagement continued until December, 1885, when he opened a family grocery in East Jackson, and in October, 1886, moved to his present location on Market Street, where he is receiving a fair share of deserved patronage. Mr. Moffat began life poor, his possessions being gained by his own honesty and fair dealing. December 6, 1882, he married Laura Estes, of this city. She was born in this county in 1867, and is the mother of three children: Alexander, Nellie and Edward A. He and wife are members of the Baptist Church. He is a member of the Locomotive Brotherhood and in politics is a Democrat.

P. J. Murray, secretary Jackson Oil-Mills, was born August, 1846, in Cook County, Ill., and is of a family of seven children born to P. J. and Anna Murray, both natives of Ireland. The parents both came to America when young and married in Chicago, where the mother's death occurred in 1857. The father is still living in Chicago, having retired from the mercantile trade about 1865. Our subject and three brothers are the surviving members of the family. He remained with his parents till the commencement of the war; then was appointed to the United States military telegraph service, and at the close of the war continued telegraphy at Memphis, Tenn., till 1878; then came to Jackson and accepted a position as cashier of the oil-mills established here at that time, with a stock capital of $40,000. At the incorporation of the company the following officers were elected: President, John H. Freeman; vice-president, John L. Wisdom; J. W. Allison, secretary; N. H. White, treasurer, and our subject, cashier. The officers were unchanged till September, 1886, except by death of Freeman, Howel E. Jackson acting president, at which date J. W. Allison was elected president; P. J. Murray, secretary, White and Wisdom retaining their old offices. In 1883 the amount of and served one term of eight years. In August, 1883, he came to Jackson, and began practicing with his brother-in-law, [illegible] Tripp, under the firm name of [illegible] Harry S. Marks and [illegible] of this firm till the present. December 5, 1890, he was united in marriage with Miss Annie B. Lang Dunnelly, of Hampton County. They have two children—Ernest A. and Lorraine. Mr. [illegible] is a Democrat, and he and wife are members of the Christian Church.

Morris S. Marks, a prominent grocer of this city, was born in Florida in 1855, one of the sons of Alexander and Margaret A. (Lindsey) Marks. The father was born in Scotland and came to Florida, where he married. He was a carpenter by trade and had a family of four children. The father died in 1873. The mother lives in this city. Our subject was reared to manhood in Florida, having come to this place in 1879. After coming to the city he was employed on the Mobile & Ohio Railroad, which engagement continued until December, 1885, when he opened a family grocery in East Jackson, and in October, 1886, moved to his present location on Market Street, where he is receiving a fair share of the general patronage. Mr. Marks began life poor, his possessions being gained by his own industry and fair dealing. December 6, 1888, he married Laura Sikes, of this city. She was born in this county in 1867, and is the mother of three children: Alexander, Nellie and Edward A. He and wife are members of the Baptist Church. He is a member of the Locomotive Brotherhood and in politics is a Democrat.

J. L. Stevens, secretary Jackson Oil Mills, was born August, 1846, in Lake County, Ill., and is one of a family of seven children born to E. J. [illegible] with the [illegible] of Indiana [illegible] Augusta when young and located in Georgia, where the mother's death occurred in 1887. The father is still living in Georgia, having retired from the mercantile trade about 1868. Our subject and three brothers are the surviving members of the family. He remained with his parents till the commencement of the war, then was appointed to the United States military telegraph service, and at the close of the war continued telegraphy at Memphis, Tenn., till 1875; then came to Jackson and accepted a position as bookkeeper of the oil-mills established here at that time, with a stock capital of $40,000. At the reorganization of the company the following officers were elected: President, John H. Freeman; vice-president, John L. Wisdom; J. W. Allison, secretary; N. H. White, treasurer, and our subject, manager. The officers were unchanged till September, 1880, caused by death of President, Howell E. Jackson acting president, at which time J. W. Allison was elected president; E. J. Murray, secretary, White and Wisdom retaining their old offices. In 1883 the amount of

W. and Margaret Madow. She died in March, 1876. Our subject passed his youthful days in assisting his father on the farm and in attending the country schools. He received a rather limited education, but enough for practical purposes. November 29, 1869, he was united in marriage to Martha A. Ogwin, a native of Tennessee, and has by her two children: James D., born 1872, and Florence E., born 1875. Mr. Grice is a member of the Presbyterian Church, also a member of the Masonic fraternity, and is a highly respected and successful farmer.

Lueco Hailey, one of Humphreys County's best farmers, was born December 8, 1829, being the only son of a family of two children born to John Hailey and Rebecca (Ladd) Hailey. The father was born in North Carolina, in 1819, and died in Montgomery County, Ala., 1834. The mother was a native of the same county as was the father. She was born in 1809; she is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Our subject was reared on a farm until in his twenty-second year. He then taught school in Humphreys and Dickson Counties for eight years, and was then employed on a farm in Dickson County for a period of nine years. He chose, and on August, 29, 1852, wedded Miss Amanda C. Hedge, a native of Humphreys. Six children were the fruits of this union, viz.: Jesse L., Lucinda, Jemimah, Sidney, Mary Ann, Margaret C. and Amanda C., all of whom are living. On December 16, Mr. Hailey enlisted in Company C, Maney's battalion, in which he served till March, 1863, when he was taken prisoner. He returned from the army to Humphreys County, where he has since resided. October 25, 1871, he was bereft of his first wife, and December 17, 1872, he was bound in matrimony to Susan Bibb, who has borne him three children, viz.: Richard D., Ann Eliza and A. Florence, all of whom are living. In 1855 Mr. Hailey became a member of the F. and A. M. He is a Democrat in politics. For three years he served as a constable. He now follows farming and is justly considered a good citizen of the county.

James M. Hall, a prominent farmer of the Thirteenth District of Humphreys County, was born November 16, 1840, in Bedford County, and is the son of Thomas and Celia (Whitson) Hall, natives of Bedford County. The father was one of the early settlers of Bedford County, and died in 1842. Our subject was reared on the farm and received a common education, such as the facilities of the day afforded. May 10, 1865, he was wedded to Miss M. Nunlee, and to this union were born four children named Annie (the wife of William Jones), Laurie, Eddie and Arthur, twins. In 1886 he came to this county and engaged in agricultural pursuits on land received from his father-in-law, and has met with very good success, owning at the present time 326 acres of excellent land.

Mr. Hall is an unswerving Democrat, enlisting in the Confederate Army September 20, 1862, as lieutenant of Company G, of the Tenth Tennessee Cavalry, serving until the close of the war; took an active part in all the battles in which his command was engaged, was wounded in the shoulder at the battle of Knoxville, Tenn., which disabled him from active service one month. The county has no better or more moral citizen than Mr. Hall.

Thomas J. Haney, Esq., a prominent merchant of Bakerville, was born March 17, 1851, in Perry County, Tenn., and is the son of S. and W. (Laxon) Haney, natives of Perry County. The father was an early settler of Perry County, and died March, 1870. The son passed his early life on the farm and received a fair education, attending the common schools of the country. At sixteen years of age he commenced farming for himself on a portion of his father's land, and after his father's death he took charge of the farm, conducting it until 1871, after which he moved to Cuba Landing and engaged in the merchandise business. In 1881 he moved his stock to Bakerville, where he has since been engaged in an extensive mercantile business, making it necessary to carry a large stock of goods to supply the increasing demand in that vicinity. August 5, 1857, he married Miss Margaret A. Pickard, who died and left seven children: Hiram A., Jennie O., Lizzie W., William M., M. Ellen, Laura L. and Thomas J., who died in infancy. July 13, 1880, our subject married his second wife, Mrs. Bettie Cude, who died September 1, 1881, and left one child, named Bettie. Mr. Haney married his present wife, and by this union became the father of one child, S. F. Mr. Haney is a Democrat, and was elected magistrate of the Twelfth District in 1882. He is a notary public, a Master Mason, and has held the office of constable in Perry County. He and wife are leading members of the Christian Church.

Dr. R. A. Harrington, a prominent physician of Humphreys County, is of English and Irish parentage. He was born in Walnut County, Wis., October 23, 1856, and is the oldest of a family of two sons and one daughter born to the marriage of James Harrington and Mary Bacon. The father was born in the State of New York, and was by occupation a mechanic. In 1862 the father enlisted in the Federal Army and was in many hard-fought battles. At the close of the war he was honorably discharged at Nashville, where he now resides. The mother was born in Walnut County, Wis., in 1834. Our subject's early life was spent on a farm and in Nashville. At the age of fourteen he entered Winchester College, at Winchester, Franklin Co., Tenn., where he received a good education. He began the study of medicine at Nashville

NUNNELLY

Nunnelly, Tennessee which was established in 1882 was once a thriving mining town. Its name came from the Nunnelly Ore Mines which were named for the owner, Lawson H. Nunnelly of Vernon, who came to Hickman County from North Carolina in 1810. Ore for the Goodrich Furnace was routed through Nunnelly by train. Charcoal produced in Nunnelly was used to fire Old Furnace, a part of which still stands on Sugar Creek near the present Bucksnort Exit from Interstate 40. This charcoal was produced by firing large piles of white oak logs, covering with dirt, and allowing to char into charcoal.

For several years Nunnelly was a railroad terminal and had a "turntable" for turning around the engines. A citizen of Nunnelly remembered seeing 5 locomotives standing on a siding at one time. Here also the Ayer & Loyd Tie Company of Paducah, Kentucky had a large yard for buying and shipping crossties for many years.

Levin ("Lev") Goodrich did more than any other man toward putting on foot plans which in 1878 and 1879 resulted in the commencement of the building of the Nashville and Tuscaloosa Railroad, now the Centerville Branch of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railway. This train came through Graham, Nunnelly, Goodrich and on to Centerville. "Lev" Goodrich was seated on the cowcatcher in front of the engine on its first run.

In its early days Nunnelly was very rural with only dirt roads for wagons, buggies and walking. It had a hotel which contained two very large hallways and ten rooms which still stands. A depot stood beside the tracks, two livery stables, and a blacksmith shop. It also contained a grist mill and two general stores. Near the depot was a stockyard to which local farmers for miles around brought their livestock to be shipped by train. A Beasley family owned a large orchard for the growing and selling of both fruit and apple cider. Citizens could not have gardens for cattle and hogs roamed at will. Citizens often walked to nearby farms for the purchase of fresh vegetables.

Many citizens of Nunnelly were employed by Standard Charcoal Company which owned Nunnelly Ore Mines. In 1882 this company erected Goodrich Furnace and Wood Alcohol Works. In addition to free labor, the operators hired from neighboring slaveholders their surplus slaves for periods of one to twelve months. Some citizens worked on farms.

Occasionally a traveling circus such as Barnum and Bailey would come through the country. This provided great excitement and entertainment for all the surrounding settlers. It is believed that Alabama dog fennel came to this section of the country in the hay that was fed to the circus animals.

The educational requirements of the children were supplied by a grammar school located in Nunnelly. Religious services were held in a Baptist Church, a Methodist Church and a Christian Church. The citizens who were born in or who live in Nunnelly today are very proud of their heritage.

If you have time (at some time later), please enter the brothers and sisters of Elizabeth R. Nunneley Hornbeak. Do not think it worth the time to enter all of the many, many children of her siblings...............

I am still working on the other three children of Pleasant and Elizabeth Hornbeak. Have ordered the Civil War records for Pleasant W. Hornbeak to see if it tells where he was killed. Also, working on Mary Hornbeak, b ca 1839. Rather feel that she married before 1860, but have not found a husband for sure. Just a possibility, which I would not make public without more proof.

Thanks again for posting all of the Hornbeak family material for me.

Subject: Nunnelly in Red River County TX

Hello Mary,

My name is Dan Armstrong. I'm a descendent of Samuel Anderson Nunnelly through Lawson Harrison Nunnelly's line (in Hickman County, TN), brother of Joseph Alexander Nunnelly from whom I understand your husband descends. I'm an on and off again researcher and found your postings on the Genealogy.com GenForum today. I sometimes go for months without doing much genealogy and then when I come back to it I sometimes find welcome surprises. Your postings with Charles Bradford Parchman on the Red River county forum caught my eye. I am curious to know more about the Emma Nunnally Parchman connection to Red River County in TX. My g-g-grandmother Mary D. Nunnelly is buried near the TX/OK border in Albion, Red River County, TX, next to her second husband Matthew W. Haley, Sr. According to my records, they had two children, a Matthew Jr. and Mary Emma who married a Charles Ramseur. I am descended from Mary D. Nunnelly's first husband, William B. Collier.

Your postings mention another Lawson Harrison Nunnelly who would be your husband's g-grandfather through Joseph Alexander? Perhaps we now have three Lawson Harrison Nunnellys. I also have in my records another Lawson Harrison Nunnelly who was a grandson of Joseph Alexander's brother Lawson Harrison and his second wife, Elizabeth Sandels Sheegog. This grandson was called "Harry" and his parents were Walter Sandels Nunnelly and Eleanor Francis Phillips.

The interesting part of this story is that Harry was reportedly the romantic inspiration for the lyrics to the song "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" which was penned by Hickman County native Beth Slater Whitson. The story goes that Harry and Beth's romance was frowned on by the families and Harry was sent to Arkansas where he died young, at age 25, in 1903.

Until I read your postings today, I didn't know any more about Nunnellys in Arkansas. I'd like to figure out the connection if I can and hopefully find out more about how there came to be Nunnellys in Red River County, TX.

My line is:

Samuel Anderson Nunnelly
Lawson Harrison Nunnelly
Mary D. Nunnelly (by Lawson's first wife, Mildred White)

Do you know if Charles B. Parchman is the son of William Jesse Parchman (20 Dec 1846 - 6 Jan 1911) and Emma J. Nunneley Parchman (8 Oct 1855 - 21 Aug 1899)? Emma was the daughter of Anderson Nunneley and Jane Pettigrew of Sevier Co. AR.

Noticed that you had posted the material for Martha Jane Hornbeak and you questioned the birthdate of her father, Pleasant M. Hornbeak. I quite agree that he was born in 1807, not 1802 as shown by some people. The following:
Hickman County, Tennessee Cemetery Records (pub 1982) Part 1, page 42
    Centerville Cemetery
    Pleasant Hornbeak
        11 July 1802 - 15 Oct 1866
        Name is spelled Plesant Hambeak on stone

Hickman County, Tennessee Cemetery Records (pub 1989) Part !!, page 58
    Centerville Cemetery
    Pleasant Hornbeak
        11 July 1807 (02) - 15 Oct 1866
        Name is spelled Hambeak

Pleasant is age 43 on the 1850 census and age 53 on the 1860 census. He, therefore, is surely born in 1807.
Happy Holidays,

Learn about sponsoring this memorial...

Birth:	Dec. 22, 1884 Tiptonville Lake County Tennessee, USA
Death:	Dec., 1944 Caruthersville Pemiscot County Missouri, USA

James W. Tipton, 60, died about 8:30 p.m. Monday at his home on Highland avenue, after a period of illness dating from a cerebral stroke which he suffered several months ago, but whose condition had not been considered serious until within the past two or three weeks. He had been a resident of this city since the beginning of the year 1930.

Born Dec. 22, 1884, at Tiptonville, Tenn., (which town was named for his forebears) Mr. Tipton would have reached his sixieth birthday today. He was one of several sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Tipton, having been named for his father.

Following the occupations of farming and ginning in his native state for many years, Mr. Tipton removed with his family to Malden, Mo., in 1927, coming here about the first of January 1930. He followed the same occupation here and was interested in large farm holdings and a gin at Portageville at the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Annie Laurie Montgomery, to whom he was married Nov. 10, 1907, and by eight children--6 sons and 2 daughters. All the sons are in the service at this time, either the army or the navy, and scattered over a wide area, and are as follows: Capt. James W. Tipton Jr., Lt. Thomas, Cpl. Henry, Ensign Joe, Sgt. Jack H. and Ensign Billy Tipton. The daughters are Martha, wife of Cpl. Edward James, March Field, Calif. and Annie Laurie, wife of Aubra Wrather of Portageville.

He also is survived by four brothers and three sisters, as follows: Hale C. and Reuben R. Tipton of Tiptonville, Woodard R. of Millington, Tenn., and Client B. Tipton of Memphis; Mrs. F.J. Caldwell of Memphis, Mrs. W.J. Jamison of Tiptonville and Mrs T.P. Read of Paradise, Texas. Several of these relatives were here for the funeral.

Democrat Argus - Caruthersville, Missouri - Friday, December 22, 1944

Mr. Tipton was a member of the Methodist church and of the Masonic Lodge, also of the Shrine, Al Cherna Temple in Memphis. Prior to his removal here he served as a judge of the fiscal (county) court in his home county (Lake) and at one time was chairman of the county board of education there.

Waiting for the older daughter, Mrs. James, and perhaps other of the children to arrive here the funeral was postponed until Saturday (tomorrow) at 11 a.m., which service will be conducted by the Rev. Harold Nance, pastor, at the Methodist church. The body will be taken to his old home, Tiptonville, for interment in the family cemetery and another brief service is scheduled to be held there tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

San Jose, California Nov. 14th., 1910

MR. JOHN E. HOYLE,

WARDEN,

SAN QUENTIN, CAL.

Dear Sir:-

Enclosed please find warrant for W. O. Peery, No. 24167, received from San Mateo County about the middle of last March. We knew Peery or Perry was with you, but thought until to-day that there would be no prosecution on this end. Kindly let us know when his time is up and there will be some one there for him.

Very truly yours,

Arthur B. Langford,
Sheriff of Santa Clara County.

Warden -

We made a notation on our records to notify you 10 days before the discharge of #24167. W. O Peery. The warrant was filed with the commitment. Peery's term expires Nov 15-191

Trades, names, and addresses of past employers, length of time employed by each, and causes of loss of employment in every case With the exception of being in my Fathers store I never had any employment except my own as shown in sketch on ~~opposite~~ following page. When not engaged in the practice of law I was conducting my own business.

History of life from boyhood to present time, enumerating various places of residence; length of time lived in each county, State, and town; cause of removal; names and addresses of responsible parties in each place of former residence, for identification and reference as to truth of statements; including in this biographical sketch such items as may indicate the causes of the criminal character or conduct of the prisoner and the advantages and opportunities of education, moral training, employment, etc., enjoyed before arrest

I was born near Troy, Obion county, Tenn, May 31, 1872: moved with my parents to Texas in 1876, locating at Denton, where I resided until my parents located at Seymour in 1890. With the exceptions noted below this has been my home since said date. At Seymour I practiced law and ran a newspaper. In 1893 I moved to Enid Okla where I was judge. Left there in 1846 locating at Mexia Texas, where I owned and edited the Mexia Herald until 1901. At Seymour until 1903 when I moved to Roff Okla, engaged there in Law and owned and edited the paper. Then came to Oregon in 1908. In July 1908 arrested for a crime I never committed finally convicted in Jan 1910, sentenced to one year in Prison. Full pardon granted in June 1910. Then came to Calif. All my funds gone I tryed to get regular employment at something I was capable of doing. But failed. Supported my self such as it was by doing any thing I could get to do. Picked fruit, hops, helped in a Kitchen—anything I could make an honest dollar and eat. And sometimes for days I didnt do that— But I could always get whiskey enough to stay drunk. My condition was such I was almost a physical wreck. Which resulted in my forging the check while on a drunk and being sent here.

The names of responsible parties in the above mentioned towns are: Hon. J. W. Steen, Lawyer, Enid Okla; Mr. Frank B. Roupe, Vice President First State Bank, Seymour Tex: J. Womack, Banker, Mexia, Texas, Mr. C. M. Parrish, Merchant, Roff, Okla.

As I could not find employment such as I could make permanent I took what I could get and as such work was only by the day and for a few days at a time I do not know now the name of a single man now, even if I knew it then which in most cases I did not. I was always answering advertisements trying to get something permanent to do to make a living and wanting to keep out of trouble. Had I been able to obtain such a position I would not have been here today. My inclinations are to do right at all times and I have not a single desire to do anything criminal. My training, observation in life and experience is opposed to anything having a tendency towards criminal traits and habits! Excessive use of liquor to the extent of losing all control of myself is solely the cause of my troubles.

DETAILED ACCOUNT OF CRIME AND AGAINST WHOM COMMITTED.

In January 1910 I found temporary work in a Bakery at San Mateo owned by a Mr. Hess As there were 15 or 20 men working there - about all of whom drank - I had no trouble in keeping myself full of liquor. My place was only temporary and the job expired about Feb 20, when I found myself again without work. I had gotten in the habit of going to a certain saloon and had run up a bill of about $3.00. On Friday night after I quit the job, I was in this saloon. I had been drinking heavily all day and was badly intoxicated. When I got there they insisted on my paying the bill, telling me they knew I had quit and they must have the money. It is said I told them I had a check and would go and get it. I left and later returned with a check for $20.00 purporting to be signed by Mr. Hess. They told me they could not give me the money on it then but would allow me credit for it and I could get the ballance in the morning. I insisted on having a few dollars then and was given $3.00 which I turned in and spent over the bar at once before leaving the place - Then I went to the Bakery where I had been sleeping and stayed all night. The next morning I went to the same saloon to beg a drink. The bartender told me I had money there - about $12.50 The balance on a check and gave it to me - I remembered nothing about the transaction! I went to breakfast and after breakfast was arrested. I had all the money with me but the price of the meal and it was returned to them. The above is the testimony at the examining trial. My mind was then and is now blank as to the whole transaction. Had I been sober enough to have realized even after it was done what I had committed a sense of self-preservation would have at least caused me to try and get away. But I was in such a condition I did not know what I was doing that night when I went out and forged the check or after it was done.

I affirm the above and foregoing statement to be correct.

John M. Douglass
Died before 4 Sep 1865 when the will was proven by Hibernia L. Pillow and James M. Harder. Permelia A. Douglass was appointed Administratrix with the will annexed with Sam. A. Whiteside, David Lindsey & James Lindsey as security. James Lindsey, David Lindsey & Albert G. Cooper were appointed to set apart the years allowance of the Widow Douglass (Lewis Co. TN, Co. Ct. Min, Book 1/457)

On 5 Feb 1866 Mrs. Permelia A. Douglass, widow, dissented from the will. John M. Douglass died in May 1865 having made a nuncupative will (Lewis Co. TN, Co. Ct. Min. Book 1/485)

On 4 Feb 1867 P. A. Douglass gave notice to John W. Hornbeak & Anna Douglass Hornbeak, and to Sarah Thompson, that she intended to apply for her dower in the lands of John M. Douglass who died 15 May 1865. Anna D. Hornbeak and Sarah Thompson were the only heirs (Lewis Co. TN, Co. Ct. Min, Book 1/511).

Mrs. P. A. Hulme was appointed Admr de bonas non on 3 Nov 1873 (Lewis Co. TN, Co. Ct. Min, Book 2/149)

Same book as listed above:
Page 227
I. N. Hulme

Married before 6 Apr 1868 to P. A. Douglass, widow of John M. Douglass. Hulme petitioned to be appointed Administrator De Bonus Non in place of his wife on the Estate of John M. Douglass. J. M. Gilmore and David Lindsey were security (Lewis Co. TN, Co. Ct. Min. Book 1/565.

NOTE: Permelia Douglass Hulme (wife of Dr. John M. Douglass and Isaac Newton Hulme) is not the mother of Anna M. and Sarah Douglass. Permelia is age 23 in 1850(census of Lewis Co. TN) and age 33/38 in 1860 (census of Lawrence Co. TN, both in the household of Dr. John M. Douglass.

Dr. John M. Douglas - Douglass Cemetery - Lewis Co. TN
  23 Mar 1816 - 15 May 1865

I have not found Anna and Sarah on any census in 1850, but they are not living in the household of their father in Lewis Co. TN. Both are in Hickman Co. in 1860 and Sarah is already married to A. J. Thompson.

Additional for Pleasant Douglas Hornbeak:
  Child # 3 - Shown as Living Hornbeak on Rootsweb is listed as Mack Hornbeak age 3, on the 1910 census. The following may apply:
  Social Security Death Index
  Mack Hornbeak
    born / 23 Jun 1906
    died / Nov 1983 / Baton Rouge, LA

Death Notices, Nashville Christian Advocate, 1883-1884:
29 Dec 1883

George Washington Gray, Esquire, born; January 17, 1818; died November, 27, 1883; married Sarah E. Hornbeak, December 23, 1842; member of Gray's Bend Church.
(NOTE: The date on his tombstone is 1819....also, the marriage date is definitely in error. On the 1850 census for Hickman Co. TN, it is marked that George W. and Sarah Gray were married within the year, so probably married in 1849)

I could probably go on for pages about the family of Sarah Hornbeak, dau of Pleasant and Elizabeth. Guess since Sarah and her family were a bit prominent in Texas, the research is sure easy. No one seems to have done any research on the family, but guess it was because there were so few descendants. Only two of her children had children of their own. On the 1910 census, Sarah Hornbeak Gray said she was the mother of 10 children, with only six living.........I have found only five living in 1910, so have no idea who the other children can be........

The New York Times, December 25, 1939

An Old Letter

Four years after Mark Twain captured the boyhood of America with "Tom Sawyer" a 12-year-old lad in Dallas, Texas, prompted by his teacher, sent the author one of his English themes together with his report card for the term. This led to a two-year correspondence. The boy, D. W. Bowser, grew to manhood and only recently died. But he always heeded Twain's warning: "Don't let any of this private letter get into print, old fellow."

That first letter, dated at Hartford, March 20, 1880, has now come to light. The writer gently rags his young friend on the perfection of his report card. "I notice that you do not go over 100 in Absence and Tardiness," he says, "That is very good, indeed. I used to strike 1,000 in those studies, sometimes, when I had my hand in." The body of the letter is devoted to sunset reflections on existence as a Mississippi River pilot. Mark Twain concludes that if he had to live his life over again it would be only on condition that he could return as a cub pilot and that it should be always Summer on the river, with the oleanders in bloom.

Author to Young Writers

There is one passage in the letter which should be made a part of every school course in English. The advice it contains is as sound today as is was nearly sixty years ago when it was written. And the amount of loose writing still pouring forth from the world's typewriters shows that it is as hard to follow now as it was then.

This is the passage:

"I notice that you use plain, simple language, short words and brief sentences. That is the way to write English - it is the modern way and the best way. Stick to it; don't let fluff and flowers and verbosity creep in. When you catch an adjective, kill it. No, I don't mean utterly, but kill most of them - then the rest will be valuable. They weaken when they are close together. They give strength when they are wide apart. An adjective habit, or a wordy, diffuse, flowery habit, once fastened upon a person, is as hard to get rid of as any other vice."

An Old Letter

Four years after Mark Twain captured the boyhood of America with "Tom Sawyer," a 12-year-old lad in Dallas, Texas, prompted by his teacher, sent the author one of his English themes together with his report card for the term. This led to a two-year correspondence. The boy, D. W. Bowser, grew to manhood and only recently died. But he always heeded Twain's warning: "Don't let any of this private letter get into print, old fellow."

That first letter, dated at Hartford, March 20, 1880, has now come to light. The writer gently nags his young friend on the perfection of his report card. "I notice that you do not go over 100 in Absence and Tardiness," he wrote. "That is very good, indeed. I used to strike 1,000 in those studies, sometimes, when I had my health." The body of the letter is devoted to sweet reflections on existence as a Mississippi River pilot. Mark Twain concluded that if he had to live his life over again it would be only on condition that he could return as a cub pilot and that it should be always Summer on the river, with the dogwoods in bloom.

Advice to Young Writers

There is one passage in the letter which should be made a part of every school course in English. The advice it contains is as sound today as it was nearly sixty years ago when it was written. And the amount of loose writing still pouring forth from the world's typewriters shows that it is as hard to follow now as it was then.

This is the passage:

"I notice that you use plain, simple language, short words and brief sentences. That is the way to write English - it is the modern way and the best way. Stick to it; don't let fluff and flowers and verbosity creep in. When you catch an adjective, kill it. No, I don't mean utterly, but kill most of them - then the rest will be valuable. They weaken when they are close together. They give strength when they are wide apart. An adjective habit, or a wordy, diffuse, flowery habit, once fastened upon a person, is as hard to get rid of as any other vice."

EDWARDS, GEORGE CLIFTON (1876-1961). George Clifton Edwards, attorney, one of five sons of William Mecklin and Elva (Gray) Edwards, was born in Dallas in 1876. He attended the Dallas public schools, the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee, and Harvard University, where he received a master's degree in English in 1899. In 1905 he married Octavia Nichols; the couple eventually had one son and three daughters, although two of the daughters died in infancy. Edwards returned to Dallas in 1901 and began teaching algebra and Latin at Oak Cliff High School. He became interested in socialism after being exposed to the plight of mill workers who lived in the slums of south Dallas. In 1902 he launched the Dallas Public Night School to educate illiterate adults. He soon became editor and publisher of the Laborer, the first official newspaper of the Texas State Federation of Labor[qv] and the Dallas Trades Assembly. In his editorials for the Laborer Edwards advocated equal rights for blacks, the abolition of child labor, compulsory education, the rights of workers to organize, a graduated income tax, public housing for low-income families, workmen's compensation, an eight-hour day, social security, and the abolition of capital punishment. In 1906 he was the Socialist candidate for governor of Texas. In 1907 he was elected to the Dallas City Charter Commission. In 1908, because of his politics, he was fired from his teaching job.

In 1910 Edwards was admitted to the bar, and he used his position as a lawyer to defend the causes he believed in. As an advocate of the poor and underprivileged he took cases involving landlord-tenant disputes, foreclosures, labor problems, and criminal charges against blacks and members of other minorities. In 1920 he became a charter member of the American Civil Liberties Union. He was an early activist in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.[qv] In 1939 Edwards left the Socialist party[qv] because he thought its position of neutrality in World War II[qv] in the face of Hitler's aggression was untenable. He later became a Democrat after seeing President Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal put into practice many of the reforms he had long advocated. Edwards's last major case was tried in 1956, when he successfully defended the NAACP's right to operate in Texas. He died on January 30, 1961, in East Lansing, Michigan.

Scope & Contents

The papers of George Clifton Edwards, Jr. were placed in the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs in 1962, 1968, and 1973 by Judge Edwards and opened for research in May of 1992.

George Clifton Edwards, Jr. was born in Dallas, Texas in 1914 to George Clifton Edwards, a Dallas attorney and socialist, and Octavia Nichols Edwards, an educator. He received his B.A. from Southern Methodist University in 1933 and then attended Harvard, where he received his master's degree the following year. During his time at Harvard, Edwards became involved with the Student League for Industrial Democracy headed by Norman Thomas, and worked for the organization for two years.

In 1936 Edwards came to Detroit, where he went to work in production at Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Company. It was there that he became involved with union organizing, participating in the strike at Kelsey-Hayes that year. In 1937 he became a UAW-CIO representative and directed their WPA-Welfare Department for the next two years.

In April of 1939 Edwards married Margaret McConnell. Their first son, George Clifton Edwards III, was born in 1940.

Appointed director of the Detroit Housing Commission by Mayor Edward Jeffries that same year, Edwards played a large role in the construction of the Herman Gardens Housing Project. In 1941 he ran successfully for a seat on the Detroit Common Council. He served four terms on the Council, two as its president. Part of that time was served in absentia, as Edwards enlisted in the United States Army in 1943 and served until 1946. In 1944, while still in the military service, Edwards received his law degree from the Detroit College of Law and celebrated the birth of his son James.

Upon his discharge from the army, Edwards went into private practice in Detroit with attorney Theodore Bohn. Bohn played a major role in Edwards' unsuccessful 1949 mayoral campaign. In 1950 the firm became Rothe, Marston, Edwards, and Bohn, but Edwards left it in 1951 when he became probate judge in Wayne County Juvenile Court. In 1954 he became a judge in Wayne County Circuit Court, and from 1956 to 1962 served as a justice of the Michigan Supreme Court. In 1962 he returned to Detroit to serve as police commissioner and a year later was appointed to the Sixth Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals from which he retired as an active judge.

Judge Edwards co-authored The Law of Criminal Correction with Sol Rubin, Henry Weihofin and Simon Rosenzweig. He also wrote a biography of his father, Pioneer at Law.

Sources:

Jennie Loggins Hornbeak is supposed to be the dau of Dr. William Loggins and Permelia Easley and a half sister to Anna Douglass Hornbeak, wife of John. W. Hornbeak. This info from Steve Brugler of Palo Alto, CA (2005). Mr. Brugler's wife is the g-granddaughter of William E. Loggins (he is living in the household of Samuel and Jennie in 1870 in Obion Co.). Mrs. Brugler's grandmother, a dau of William Loggins told her that William had two sisters, Jennie and Narcissa and two half-sisters, Ann and Sarah Douglass. Just cannot solve this puzzle......

Subject: Who is CADDIE HORNBECK ??
Author: Mary R M Nunneley
Date: 07 Feb 2005 2:12 PM GMT
Email: nunne002@aol.com

Posted on Rootsweb is the following family:
William James Frierson (son of John William Frierson) married # 1 - CADDIE HORNBECK / had infant son married # 2 - Rebecca Frierson / had son William
The 1870 census of Maury Co. TN lists William, Rebecca and a son, Willie, age 10. The marriage records in Maury Co. TN list the marriage of William Frierson and Rebecca Frierson on 22 Nov 1866. Therefore, the son Willie (age 10) is not the son of Rebecca, but apparently the son of CADDIE HORNBECK.
Is CADDIE HORNBECK the following:
Centerville Cemetery, Centerville, Hickman Co. TN
Mary Caroline Frierson, wife of Wm. J. born - 24 Apr 1839
died - 18 Jul 1860
Who are the parents of CADDIE HORNBECK ??

Mary,

Thanks for your e-mail regarding the Frierson's. I wish I could be of more help to you , but it sounds like you have done a lot of good research in documenting your belief as to who this individual is. There is a lot of information on the Frierson's in Maury County Tennessee. Just a suggestion - you might want to go to:

http://www.tngenweb.org/maury/gs/gsindex.htm (http://www.tngenweb.org/maury/gs/gsindex.htm)

and see if you can find anything on the Maury County Website. Goodspeed wrote a lot of family profiles for Tennessee families and there is one for the Friersons.

Also, if you have not been to my website for Hugh Brown and Mary Buie, I would suggest visiting there, especially to see some of the old letters written from Tennessee to Robeson County from 1810-1850. Here is a link:

http://www.usbuies.com/ (http://www.usbuies.com/)

Let me know what you think and from time to time how your research is going.

With kind regards,
Bradley M. Buie

Mr. Buie,
You posted to the internet (found on Rootsweb families) the following information:

William James Frierson (John William Frierson 1) died in Maury Co. TN.
Married #1 - Caddie Hornbeck
Had one infant son

Married #2 - Rebecca Frierson
Had a son, William Marion Frierson

I am very interested in the wife # 1, Caddie Hornbeck and believe she is the mother of William Marion Frierson for the following reason:

Marriage records of Maury Co. TN
William J. Frierson married Rebecca Frierson on 22 Nov 1866

1870 Census / Maury Co. TN / 10th Civil Dist / P. O. Mt. Pleasant / page 397
30 - 31

Wm J. Frierson		35	mw	farmer	$9600/1300	TN
Rebecka	"	33	fw	keep house		TN
Willie	"	10	mw			TN

Since WIlliam and Rebecca did not marry until 1866, I believe the Willie Frierson, listed as age 10 on the 1870 census must be the child of William J. and Caddie. Also, the following:

Centerville Cemetery, Centerville, Hickman Co. TN
Mary Caroline Frierson, wife of Wm. J. Frierson
born - 24 Apr 1839
died - 18 Jul 1860

Could this Mary Caroline be Caddie Hornbeck who married Rev. William J. Frierson?
Did she die at the birth of their son William Marion Frierson?
Your help and thoughts concerning this family will be greatly appreciated.
Thank much,

I have exhausted all of the web sites pertaining to Maury Co. and the Friersons listed. I wish I knew the source for the "Caddie Hornbeck" that married William James Frierson.
My search is really for a Mary Hornbeak, born ca 1839 in Hickman Co. TN, dau of Pleasant and Elizabeth Nunneley Hornbeak. I feel she may be the Mary Caroline Frierson buried in Centerville Cemetery (as are her parents) and listed as the wife of Wm. J. Frierson.
Thanks for your reply and if you can think of anyone that may be able to tell me where the name "Caddie Hornbeck" came from......would appreciate the help.
I have looked at your sites and you have shared so much information to assist all doing research.
Thanks much,

Sam,
Thanks for the good Hickman Co. site at USGenWeb. It is great.
I am trying to find information concerning the Centerville Cemetery. I have both cemetery books for Hickman Co., but am trying to determine the location of burial for four people in Centerville Cemetery. Do you know who might have the records showing...Block, Lot and Space within this cemetery? I am trying to find out if four people are buried next to one another. If the block, etc., records do not exist, do you know of any researcher in the area who might go to Centerville Cemetery and look for the four graves to see if they together? I would also, like to have pictures of the stones, if possible.
Your help or suggestions will be greatly appreciated. I am 73 years old and my travel days (due to health problems) are now almost over. No chance of making a trip to Centerville.
Thanks much for your help.

Gay,

Just sent info for Frank B. Hornbeak.......I show his wife # 1, as Emma A. Cash, dau of Emily E. Cash and unknown Mr. Cash. Just found your posting on Obion Co. TN Branches & Twigs concerning the Cash family.
Emma A. Cash must be the daughter of Emily E. Outlaw and Thomas W. Cash who married in Obion Co. on 27 Aug 1840.
Emily E. Cash is a widow in 1850 and living in Maury Co. TN with children (later moves to Hickman Co.):

Emily E. Cash	31
Mary Cash	8 (she is the M. D. Shouse where Frank's baby died in 1886)
Jenny Cash	6
Thos Cash	4
Emily Cash	3 (surely Emma A. who married Frank Hornbeak)

Thanks so much for Branches & Twigs.........I just keep finding great items there !!
Mary R M Nunneley

SECTION B. IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR ORDER.

We can only search for a record based on the information you provided in blocks 1-12. The success and accuracy of our search is determined by the information you provide. Often there are many files for veterans of the same or nearly the same name. If there are three or fewer files for men with the same name as the individual in whom you are interested, we will examine the relevant files and compare their contents with the information that you have provided us. If the veteran's identity seems obvious, we will furnish you a copy of the file we think is the correct one.

We can not make a file-by-file check to see if the information in the numerous files matches that provided for the veteran in whom you are interested. In such cases, we suggest that you visit the National Archives and examine the various files, or hire a professional researcher to examine the files for you. We do not maintain a list of persons who do research for a fee; however, many researchers advertise their services in genealogical periodicals, usually available in libraries.

PLEASE NOTE: This mail order photocopying service is available ONLY from Old Military and Civil Records (NWCTB-Military) at the address below. Please address all inquiries about your order to Old Military and Civil Records at this address or call us at 301-837-2000. When you send more than one form at a time, each form is handled separately. Therefore, you may not receive all of your replies at the same time. Allow 60 to 90 days for processing your order. More information about the availability of records pertaining to military service or family histories may be found in our free genealogical information leaflets and forms. You may request these, as well as order additional copies of this form, by writing to: Old Military and Civil Records (NWCTB-Military), Textual Archives Services Division, National Archives and Records Administration, 700 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20408-0001.

Subject: RE: W.O. Peery record

Date: Sun, 18 Nov 2007 15:31:12 -0500

How interesting. According to Willie's mother's will, a copy of which I am attaching, " ...W.O.Peeryour oldest child Died died June 3, 1912. 40 years old Never Maried," My records also show Willie was born 31 May 1872, in Hickman County, Tennessee, I assume in Centerville. I have no idea where he died. Until this last week I assumed he must have died in or near Rolf or Rolfe, Oklahoma. does Rolf still exist as a town? Any idea where it is or was? According to the biography of T.H.C. Peery, Willie was a newspaper reporter there. The biography was published in 1906. Now, considering he died within six months of being released from prison in California, I think he probably died in California.

If you are interested, Willie's mother's will, Anna Sarah Hornbeark Peery's, was filed for record on 31 March 1925 at 4:30 p.m. and was duly recorded on 01 April 1925 in volume 69, page 529 in the DEED Records of Baylor County, Texas. Note her will is filed not in the PROBATE records but in the DEED records.

Again thank you. You have helped to clear up a family mystery.

I am also attaching a copy of a picture I have of Anna Sarah Hornbeark, Terry Houston Cahal Peery, and their children, my grandmother, the oldest daughter, Helen Goodloe Peery Briggs, Ethel Anna Peery Hudson, and their brother William Osborne Peery. Willie was probably in his late teens or early twenties when this picture was taken. Unfortunately there is no date on the photograph. Note how similar the young man is to the picture of the man in the California archives. They certainly look like one and the same men to me, given about 20 years of aging.

Subject: Re: W.O. Peery record

I am researching all of the children of Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunneley of Hickman Co. TN.....this includes their daughter, Elizabeth "Betsy" Nunneley who married Pleasant Hornbeak. In following the children of Pleasant and Betsy, it led me to the Peery family. I could find no "Rolfe Oklahoma" so tried to find William O. Peery on any census. Up popped Willie in CA, as an inmate in San Quentin Prison. Since his age and birth location seemed to fit, I contacted the CA State Archives to see if they had public information available about this person. They responded promptly and send me the info. I requested the material on 19 Jan 2005 and received the information on 15 Feb 2005. I have a date of death for Willie picked up from someplace on the internet as....3 Jun 1912, but there is no location or source, so it may not be a valid date. Do you know when and where he died ??

I had always assumed that as his father's biography said he was a newspaper reporter in Rolfe, Indian Territory and that the biography was published in 1906 he must have also died in Oklahoma. Any idea where Rolfe is or was?

Terry Houston Cahal PEERY (father of W. O. Peery)

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

I cannot begin to tell you how providential was the copy of the prison record sheet you sent me 13 November 2007, on William Osborne Peery from the California State Archives. It has taken some time but I now have a nearly complete account of his life. From his mother's will, Anna Sarah Hornbeak Peery, I know he died on 03 June 1912, just shy of seven months after being released from San Quentin Prison. I suspect he was in custody of the then Sheriff of Santa Clara County, California, Arthur B. Langford, when he died. From a note to the Warden of San Quentin, signed by Sheriff Langford., it appears Sheriff Langford's men would pick him up when he was released from San Quentin..

A letter from the Sheriff's office today says they no longer have those records. I am awaiting a search of the California Death Certificates. I hope to have something positive within the next month to six weeks.

In the meantime I want to share with you the information I have gathered. I do not know how deeply you have gone into the Peery side but you obviously are a thorough researcher as without your lead I would never be as far along as I am.

In addition to the information I have gathered on W. O. Peery, I am enclosing some information on his father, T. H. C. Peery. You may already know that T.H.C. Peery is shown on the 1850 census Maury County, Tennessee, and on both Obion (03 August 1860) and either the Hickman or Maury County censuses for 1860. I cannot find my copy of the 1860 census for these counties but it is dated before 03 August 1860.

On the 17 August 1850 census for Maury County, Tennessee, T. H. C. Peery is shown with his mother, Margaret Peery, and several (I assume) siblings including what appears to be a set of one year old twins George W. and Peyton. This would indicate that T. H. C. Peery's father, Robert, must have died sometime after 1848 and before 17 August 1860.

On the 03 August 1860 census for Obion County, Tennessee, T. H. C. Peery is shown in the home of J. W. Wells a 45 year old male and Martha A wells a 37 year old female. I assume these must be relatives, perhaps his mother or father's siblings.

I am wondering if you have any information on or can give me any leads on T. H. C. Peery's parents?

I am including copies of the information I received from both the states of Oregon, and California about William Osborne Peery, and copies of an entry on T. H. C. Peery from an early Texas history book as well as a newspaper report dated Friday, 24 March 1911, where T. H. C. is declining to run again for mayor of Seymour, Baylor County, Texas.

I have also seen, although I do not have a copy readily available, an obviously first person account of T. H.C Peery's service in the Confederate Army. It is in the Book, Our Boys in Gray, by Mamie Yeary, published by the Navasota (Texas) Press around 1913. T.H. C. apparently wrote the information long hand and sent it to Miss Yeary as in the book I believe his initials are given as F. H. C. Peery where his "T" was mistaken for an "F".

If you are interested in having a copy of this entry from Our Boys in Gray I will be happy to see if I can find it and send a copy to you.

Again, thank you for all your help. I hope my enclosed information is something you can use.

Sincerely,

Houston W. Briggs, II

Houston W. Briggs, II

Mary,

I have been trying to send you this information for almost twelve hours. It totals, according to the size indicators of the individual messages, about 225 MB which is apparently too large even though I supposedly have the highest speed Premium Turbo service offered by RoadRunner internet service. I have been getting the message that Outlook is "Sending 1 of 5", "Sending 1 of 8", etc. but nothing moves. I even went to bed with the computer running last night hoping the messages would be sent by this morning. No luck.

I have not even been able to open the messages and print them out so that I could just snail mail them to you or perhaps break them into even smaller pieces without having to recreate everything from scratch. I kept getting the message that said I "could not open because Outlook has already begun sending the message" Finally I was able to delete all the messages and I am going to try again.

This message explains why I am tardy in replying. Then I will try to send each additional attachment as a separate message. There should be a total of nine or ten messages including this one.

First I am going to be sending you copies of the death certificates for T. H. C. Peery and his wife Anna Sarah Hornbeak Peery. For T. H. C. Peery's death certificate the information was provided by his wife, Anna Sarah Hornbeak Peery. I have no idea why she did not know the names of his parents. T. H. C. and Anna married in Hickman County Tennessee on 21 June 1871. According to the entry in A Twentieth Century History and Biographical Record of North and West Texas, Capt. B. B. Paddock, Editor, Illustrated Volume II, The Lewis Publishing Co., Chicago and New York, 1906 T. H. C.'s parents were Robert and Margaret (Harrold) Peery and his mother died in 1884 after attaining the advanced age of ninety years. I assume, although I have no proof, that she died in or near Obion County, Tennessee, and is probably buried there. I am sending you a copy of this article I just scanned from the actual book which has taken me nine months to get from one of my cousins. They did not move to Texas until 1876. Their oldest child, William Osborne Peery, according to his autobiography in prison which I sent you was born 31 May 1872, near Troy, Obion County, Tennessee, his sister, Helen Goodlow Peery Briggs, my grandmother, was born 30 October 1873 in Hornbeak, Obion County, Tennessee. I suspect T.H.C. had relatives there, probably on his mother's side as this is where he was born, where he enlisted in the Confederate Army, and where his first two children were born. On the 1860 census for Obion County he is shown living in the home of a J. W. Wells who may be an uncle or brother-in-law. I intend to send you a copy of this 1860 Census taken the 3rd day of August 1860. T. H. C. is shown seven from the top on page 89 which is a continuation of the listing of J. W. Wells begun near the bottom of page 88.

I intend to send you a copy of the 1850 Census record for Maury County, Tennessee, taken 17 August 1850 showing Terry H. C. as a ten year old with his mother, Margaret Peery, and what I assume to be his siblings. I am 99 percent certain that T. H. C. Peery's given names were Terry Houston Cahal Peery. The census shows his name as "Terry" as do some documents from his wife. I once asked my father what the names were and he told me Terry Houston Cahal or Cahill Peery. Several years later I found a reference to an prominent early Tennessee jurist (judge) named Terry Houston Cahal. I assume my great grandfather was named for him. I have no idea if there was any family relationship.

As to Anna Sarah Hornbeak Peery's death certificate the information given on it was provided by her daughter, my grandmother, Helen Goodlow Peery Briggs. She shows her mother's mother as being Bettie Clegget which I believe you told me is incorrect, and that her mother was Betsy Nunneley.

In addition to the Census records for 1850 and 1860, I am sending you copies of the title and index pages for A Twentieth Century History and Biographical Record of North and West Texas Volume II. in case the book may have information on others you are researching. T. H. C. Peery's entry is on pages 316 and 317 which I also intend to send you. I have just ordered a new Hewlett-Packard All-in-One Officejet Pro L7680 Printer, Fax, Scanner, Copier that I should receive the first part of next week. I intend to scan all 714 pages of this book so that I will never have to wait nine months to get it again. Almost no library has it. The same holds true for Volume I.

Well, I think this about does it. I am going to try once more but before I do I am going to try to save this e-mail as a Word document so I will not have to recreate it a third time. Wish me luck.

I am glad you received everything in good order. Thank you so much for the link to the Reminiscences of the Boys in Gray, 1861-1865. I tried to find it in the Orlando Library yesterday, Monday, and I was told there are almost no libraries that have a copy. The Orlando Library does not.

I am hoping that when you have time you may have some information on T. H. C. Peery's parents and their other children. Because my grand aunt, Ethel Anna Peery Hudson did not want anyone to know about her brother she would cut off any questions of the family. Her older sister, Helen Goodlow Peery Briggs, was my grandmother but she died in 1948 when I was seven and too young to be interested in any family other than my own parents and when I saw them my grandparents . I only remember seeing my father's mother a few times as my brother, Tom, and I were born in Meridian, Mississippi, and lived in Mississippi and Mobile,Alabama, until my parents had an opportunity to move back to Texas, shortly before my father's mother died.

Interestingly enough my mother was a Peery. However, I know that she and my father were not closer than third cousins as they did not have the same great grand parent although I do expect they may have been more distant cousins. No way to prove it until I can get more information on T.H.C. Peery's line. My mother's great grandfather was Thomas Jefferson Peery who was born in Taswell County, Virginia, and who was married to Rebecca Graham Whitten, also from Tazwell County, Virginia.

Oh, my word...........you have been very busy and have found a world of information. I am amazed.
I just received the packet of information today and have not had time to really digest all of the new material. One item mentioned in your letter pertaining to Mamie Yeary's book "Reminiscenes of the Boys in Gray, 1861-1865 is online. I checked it out and found it online at the University of North Texas Library site. Try the following:

http://texashistory.unt.edu/permalink/meta-pth-29786:1

The article concerning T. H. C. Peery (shown as F. H. C) is on pages 597 and 598. I was a bit sad that the article is rather small compared to some of the other men who wrote to Miss Yeary.

Thanks so much for the good things sent. I just wonder why W. O. Peery went so wrong with his life. He was an educated man from a good family. I suppose he was correct when he said drinking was his downfall.........and would guess since he was so far from any family members, he had no help and love from anyone. Sad..........

Mary,

I have been trying to send you this information for almost twelve hours. It totals, according to the size indicators of the individual messages, about 225 MB which is apparently too large even though I supposedly have the highest speed Premium Turbo service offered by RoadRunner internet service. I have been getting the message that Outlook is "Sending 1 of 5", "Sending 1 of 8", etc. but nothing moves. I even went to bed with the computer running last night hoping the messages would be sent by this morning. No luck.

I have not even been able to open the messages and print them out so that I could just snail mail them to you or perhaps break them into even smaller pieces without having to recreate everything from scratch. I kept getting the message that said I "could not open because Outlook has already begun sending the message" Finally I was able to delete all the messages and I am going to try again.

This message explains why I am tardy in replying. Then I will try to send each additional attachment as a separate message. There should be a total of nine or ten messages including this one.

First I am going to be sending you copies of the death certificates for T. H. C. Peery and his wife Anna Sarah Hornbeak Peery. For T. H. C. Peery's death certificate the information was provided by his wife, Anna Sarah Hornbeak Peery. I have no idea why she did not know the names of his parents. T. H. C. and Anna married in Hickman County Tennessee on 21 June 1871. According to the entry in A Twentieth Century History and Biographical Record of North and West Texas, Capt. B. B. Paddock, Editor, Illustrated Volume II, The Lewis Publishing Co., Chicago and New York, 1906 T. H. C.'s parents were Robert and Margaret (Harrold) Peery and his mother died in 1884 after attaining the advanced age of ninety years. I assume, although I have no proof, that she died in or near Obion County, Tennessee, and is probably buried there. I am sending you a copy of this article I just scanned from the actual book which has taken me nine months to get from one of my cousins. They did not move to Texas until 1876. Their oldest child, William Osborne Peery, according to his autobiography in prison which I sent you was born 31 May 1872, near Troy, Obion County, Tennessee, his sister, Helen Goodlow Peery Briggs, my grandmother, was born 30 October 1873 in Hornbeak, Obion County, Tennessee. I suspect T.H.C. had relatives there, probably on his mother's side as this is where he was born, where he enlisted in the Confederate Army, and where his first two children were born. On the 1860 census for Obion County he is shown living in the home of a J. W. Wells who may be an uncle or brother-in-law. I intend to send you a copy of this 1860 Census taken the 3rd day of August 1860. T. H. C. is shown seven from the top on page 89 which is a continuation of the listing of J. W. Wells begun near the bottom of page 88.

I intend to send you a copy of the 1850 Census record for Maury County, Tennessee, taken 17 August 1850 showing Terry H. C. as a ten year old with his mother, Margaret Peery, and what I assume to be his siblings. I am 99 percent certain that T. H. C. Peery's given names were Terry Houston Cahal Peery. The census shows his name as "Terry" as do some documents from his wife. I once asked my father what the names were and he told me Terry Houston Cahal or Cahill Peery. Several years later I found a reference to an prominent early Tennessee jurist (judge) named Terry Houston Cahal. I assume my great grandfather was named for him. I have no idea if there was any family relationship.

As to Anna Sarah Hornbeak Peery's death certificate the information given on it was provided by her daughter, my grandmother, Helen goodlow Peery Briggs. She shows her mother's mother as being Bettie Clegget which I believe you told me is incorrect, and that her mother was Betsy Nunneley.

In addition to the Census records for 1850 and 1860, I am sending you copies of the title and index pages for A Twentieth Century History and Biographical Record of North and West Texas Volume II. in case the book may have information on others you are researching. T. H. C. Peery's entry is on pages 316 and 317 which I also intend to send you. I have just ordered a new Hewlett-Packard All0-in-One Officejet Pro L7680 Printer, Fax, Scanner, Copier that I should receive the first part of next week. I intend to scan all 714 pages of this book so that I will never have to wait nine months to get it again. Almost no library has it. The same holds true for Volume I.

Well, I think this about does it. I am going to try once more but before I do I am going to try to save this e-mail as a Word document so I will not have to recreate it a third time. Wish me luck.

I finally gave up trying to e-mail.

T H C Peery 12 13 10

Entered November 14, 1902, at Seymour, Texas, as second-class matter, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Volume XVI. SEYMOUR, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1911.

For Mayor.

In our announcement column appears the name of Capt. T. H. C. Peery as a candidate for mayor. This announcement is made by Capt. Peery's friends and upon the assurance that he will again serve the people if elected. As he heretofore publicly stated in the BANNER, he declined to make a contest for the office and is not now a candidate in the sense that he will make an active personal canvass; but at the earnest solicitation of many of the best citizens of Seymour he has consented to accept the office if elected, and hence they have made the announcement, believing that the city's interests will be best subserved by his re-election.

As to Capt. Peery's qualifications for mayor, it is not necessary to speak. He has been mayor for some time and as to how well he has performed his duty each man can be a judge for himself. Without doubt the affairs of the city have prospered under his administration, and would in all probability continue to prosper in the event of his election. Whether or not somebody else could do better will be left entirely with the voter on April 4th.

Chas. McKeehan, wife and little son, Max Dale, were over from Wichita to spend Sunday with the folks, J. C. McKeehan and family. Charley went back same night, but Mrs. Mac. and the boy remained till Tuesday.

Chas. E. McSweeney who came through here about a month ago representing that he was looking out a railroad line from Fort Worth to the northwest and made a proposition to our railroad committee, was brought here and put under a bond of $1,000 to answer to a charge of swindling, and is now in the Haskell county jail. The charge grew out of a draft he gave the State bank of Haskell for $50.00 after an enthusiastic meeting held with the Haskell railroad committee. We understand he met with the same courteous treatment at several other places in the west. He will re-visit several towns along his former route; and some sheriff will provide him ample entertainment during this second journey.—Haskell Free Press.

Another Good Man Out.

It is not without some hesitancy that the average business man consents to run for any public office. In the first place, public service is an interruption to business. In the second place, there is always the uncertainty as to whether or not the public wants their service. A. F. Durham hesitated to become a candidate for alderman, but at the very earnest solicitation of friends has at last allowed his name to be placed in the announcement column. It was a safe move. If he is not elected he will get enough votes to scare the next man out of a years growth.

Allen Durham was a resident of Baylor county before you or I ever knew there was such a county. He and the town grew up together, and if anybody is familiar with conditions here it is he. An advocate of progress, guided at the same time by conservative judgment, honest to a fault, incorruptable, possessed with the spirit of fairness, solicitous for the welfare of his home town and faithful in the discharge of every trust, Mr. Durham would make an alderman with whom it would be safe to Fruit Growers Use Smudge.

Roswell, N. M., March 17.—The fruit growers of the Pecos Valley, and especially in the Roswell district, are preparing to smudge as never before. Smudging on a small scale has already been started for early peaches, but the great smudge fires that, a little later, will give the whole sky a glow and fill the atmosphere with smoke over much of the valley of the Pecos, will not be started for ten days or two weeks. Many thousands of orchard heaters have been brought in this spring and added to previous supply. Thousands of gallons of crude oil are now here in storage, with orders to keep the storage tanks filled. The heaters are now being located in the orchards. In many the heaters have been filled ready for lighting should a cold snap appear. All will be in readiness for such trouble within a few days.

The Woodmen of the World, while in session at Mineral Wells the other day, resolved to establish a tubercular colony for members of their order, and within thirty-six hours Gov. Colquitt approved the measure passed by the Legislature to establish two such colonies. Both are to be Hard Rains Reported.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 18.—The hardest rain for several months was that which began about 9 o'clock last night and continued until 3 o'clock this morning, the precipitation being 1.18 inches. As for the city it was a good washing rain, which cleared the gutters and gave a thorough drenching to the ground where plants and grass is grown. It extended out over the country, and some of the adjoining counties. Rain is reported on the line of the T. and P. as far west as Merkel, as heavy or hard rain, with light rains to Abilene, where the precipitotion was .18 of an inch.

On the 29th of June I was severely attacked with pneumonia, and was sent to the hospital at Gainesville, Ala., arriving there July 4, 1862. In August I rejoined my company at Tyner's Station, Tenn. On Aug. 30th Bragg started on his march into Kentucky. We were engaged in several battles and returned to Knoxville the latter part of October, and on the 24th we had a six-inch fall of snow. We left Knoxville in the night and arrived at Chattanooga early on Nov. 1. I was sick and left in hospital. The army went on to Murfreesboro, and during the last day in December one of the bloodiest battles of the war was fought. At Franklin I was knocked down by a ball, but not injured. It was an awful sight to see the dead and wounded on the field the next morning. The battle lasted well into the night and the Federals left the same night, and we had no trouble in burying our dead the following day.

This battle was fought Nov. 30, 1864, after which Hood followed on to Nashville, and on Dec. 15 and 16 the battle of Nashville was fought. I was captured Dec. 15, and sent to Camp Douglas, Ill., and was released June 21st, 1865.

We were well treated, but we were short on rations. I saw men who died on account of being short of food. I succeeded in getting into the kitchen and had plenty to eat. I was not sick a day while in priosn, was there for six months. I was also wounded in the battle of Missionary Ridge, which disabled me until September, 1864.

S. R. PECK, Gatesville, Texas.—Born July 23, 1837, near Nacogdoches, Texas. Enlisted in the Confederate Army, April, 1861, at Victoria, Texas, as private in Company G, Sixth Texas Infantry, Polignac's Brigade, Walker's Division, Trans-Mississippi Department. Fisher, first Captain, and Garland, first Colonel.

Was changed to the Seventeenth Texas, dismounted cavalry, at Shreveport, La. My regiment was captured at Arkansas Post while I was absent on sick furlough. Was never wounded, captured nor promoted. Was in the battles of Mansfield and Pleasant Hill, La.

HENRY D. PEDEN, Woodbury, Texas.—Born Oct. 11, 1838, near Pikeville, Ala. Enlisted in the Confederate Army in 1861, at Bandera, Texas, as private in Company B, Charles DeMontell, first Captain, and J. B. Norris, first Colonel. Transferred in 1864 to Ragsdale's Battalion, Walker's Division and served the remainder of the time on the line of Louisiana and Texas. Was never in a battle with the Federals, but had several engagements with the Indians on the frontier.

Was promoted to Orderly Sergeant of Ragsdale's Battalion in 1864. Was mustered into the State Rangers in 1861, and in 1862 our regiment was reorganized and mustered into the Confederate Army, under Col. J. M. McCord, Lieut. Col. Berry and Major W. J. Alexander. We remained on the frontier until 1864.

F. H. C. PEERY, Seymour, Texas.—Born at Williamsport, Tenn., Aug. 9, 1839, and enlisted in the Confederate Army at Troy, Tenn., in August, 1861, as private in Company C, Twenty-seventh Tennessee Infantry, Wood's Brigade, Cheatham's Division, Hardee's Corps, Army of Tennessee. My first Captain was Alex Caldwell and first Colonel, Kit Williams. Was in the following battles: Shiloh, Murfreesboro, Perryville, Missionary Ridge, Resaca, the whole of the Georgia campaign, Chickamauga, Franklin and Nashville, and many other small battles and skirmishes.

Was wounded at Shiloh in the thigh near the hip joint. Was having the chills at the time, but would not get excused because it was my first chance to go into battle. My time was nearly out. I was sent to a private house in Macnary County, and then from there to Meridian, Miss. I returned to my command at Iuka, Miss., and was sent on the Kentucky campaign. I was in twenty-two engagements, big and little. Was struck by a spent ball in the forehead at Franklin, Tenn. I was only about twenty-five miles from where I was born.

I was made Second Lieutenant after the battle of Shiloh and soon after that was made Captain of the company, and served three years in this capacity. In the reorganization at Jonesboro, N. C., I was elected as one of the Captains of a new regiment, which I considered a very great compliment, as there were so many officers to select from.

Was in the battles of Shiloh, Perryville, Murfreesboro, Missionary Ridge, Chickamauga, Resaca, all the Georgia campaign, Atlanta, Jonesboro, Franklin, Nashville and many smaller ones.

WATERS PENDERGRASS, McKinney, Texas.—Born May 27, 1841, near Broad River, Lockhart Shoals, S. C., and enlisted in the Confederate Army at Chester, April 11, 1861, as private in Company E, Sixth South Carolina Infantry. First Captain was Obediah Harden, and first Colonel, James Ryan. We first volunteered as State troops for twelve months, and after our time had expired we were disbanded, and I re-enlisted in Company D of First Regiment of Cavalry, Capt. W. A. Walker and Col. J. S. Black. I remained with this regiment during the entire war, and was with Gen. Joseph E. Johnston when he surrendered at Greensboro, N. C. Belonged to Gen. Wade Hampton's Brigade while in Virginia, Gen. J. E. B. Stuart was Commanding General. I served in South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania. Served in South Carolina from Old Georgetown down to Savannah; was on different islands, skirmishing with the Yanks. Was at the taking of Fort Sumpter on the 13th of April, 1861. Heard the first gun fired at 4 o'clock a. m., on the 12th day of April, 1861; was in Charleston the 17th of February, 1865, when it was evacuated. Then got near Sherman's army and skirmished with them up to Goldsboro, N. C., and from there to Greensboro. Was under fire from the enemy every day from the 9th of April for thirteen days after Lee had surrendered.

The second big battle I was in was at Gettysburg, Pa., three days. On the second day I thought my time had come. Gen. Hampton charged a Yankee battery and we went to the mouth of the guns and took them. I never knew how I escaped being killed. The battle at Culpepper Court House, Va., was another hard fight. Gen. Stuart fought Gens. Stoneman and Pleasanton. We had several killed, but gained a victory.

Was in some battles of the Shenandoah Valley, Martinsburg, Fredericksburg, Stevensburg and various others, which I can not now name. Was never wounded nor taken prisoner, thank God, and was never whipped, but was overpowered.

A. O. PENDLETON, Gatesville, Texas.—Born Oct. 25th, 1832, in Scott County, Virginia. Enlisted in the Confederate Army in 1861, in Collin County, Texas, as private in Company F, Martin's Regiment, Cooper's Brigade, Trans-Mississippi Department, John K. Bumpas, first Captain, and Cooper, first Colonel. Was never changed, wounded, captured nor promoted. Was in no regular battles. I did scout duty and was in many skirmishes.

a friend Young county has produced no purer and nobler character than the late William D. Craig, who until October 29, 1904, was one of the distinguished among her private citizens and whose passing away marked a sad day in the social and business life of its county seat.

Almost the entire career of Mr. Craig's business life was passed as a resident of Young county and it was here that his virtues shone brilliantly and it was here, too, the influence of his daily life left an imprint that only time can obliterate. His business relations brought him into contact with all classes and all people and the calcium light of his example and precept pointed out the true and the right way to one and all alike. Everywhere along his pathway he spread happiness and good-cheer and in his wake invisible results accumulated which shall endure while memory lasts.

Coming hither in 1888, Mr. Craig embarked in the cattle business with his brother, and their interests on Fish creek were considerable during the remainder of his life. Besides his stock interests he was connected with the financial affairs of his community and filled responsible offices in two of the county's banks. He helped organize the First National Bank of Graham, which afterward liquidated, and was an influence toward the direction of its affairs. His connection with the Beckham National Bank of Graham gave that institution much of its prestige and as its cashier he won a large and desirable patronage.

William D. Craig was born in Plainfield, New Jersey, April 2, 1860, and was a son of Dr. Lewis Craig, who passed a half century in the active practice of medicine in that city. After passing through the Plainfield schools he prepared for college in the Pingry school at Elizabeth and then entered Princeton College. He completed the classical course in that institution in 1882, when he was busied with the affairs of his father's estate until 1888. He married at Spokane, Washington, September 29, 1893, Miss Elizabeth Graham who was the light of his life and the guardian angel of his household. Their marriage was a union of two hearts that ever beat in perfect unity and harmony and their lives are reflected in the intelligence, the affection and the modest bearing of their offspring. Mrs. Craig was closely allied to the religious work of her town and while her name was on the Presbyterian church rolls all churches were pleased to claim her for her good works, and when she died, February 9, 1901, Graham was a house of mourning. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Craig were Agnes, Mary and Catherine, the jewels of their father's crown and the last thoughts of his conscious hours. Mr. Craig was an elder of the Graham Presbyterian church and its welfare came in for a good share of his attention and substantial support.

CAPTAIN TERRY H. C. PEERY, a prominent man of affairs at Seymour, Baylor county, has enjoyed a career of unusual individual success and prestige, and what he has effected in a public-spirited way in promoting the educational progress of Seymour will be felt as an influence for good through all succeeding generations of the town's history. Captain Peery is a man of broad gauge, has large faculties and talents, has been aspiring in his endeavors, has experienced life as most men have not, and as a character is well rounded and influential and a man whose position in the world is elevating and helpful.

He is a native of Maury county, Tennessee, where he was born in August, 1839. His parents were Robert and Margaret (Harrold) Peery, and his father, a native of Tennessee, was a farmer and died before the war. His mother was also born in Tennessee, and died in 1884 after attaining the advanced age of ninety years.

Captain Peery was reared on a farm and received a good common school education. At the beginning of the rebellion he enlisted in Obion county, Tennessee, going out in Company C, Twenty-seventh Tennessee Infantry, of the Confederate army as a non-commissioned officer. After the battle of Shiloh he was commissioned first lieutenant, and at the battle of Murfreesboro was promoted to captain, and thence during the remainder of the war commanded Company C of the Twenty-seventh. In addition to the two battles mentioned he was in all the engagements participated in by the Army of the Tennessee, altogether forty-two in number, the most important being Shiloh, Perryville, Chattanooga, Missionary Ridge, the fighting at Atlanta and vicinity, and Franklin and Nashville. He was wounded at the battle of Shiloh. At the battle of Nashville he commanded the regiment, his superior officers having all been killed or wounded at Franklin. After that engagement his regiment was sent to North Carolina, where it took part in the battle of Bentonville, and at the time of final surrender was at Greensboro.

From an officer in the Confederate army he returned home and entered the mercantile business, which has been the principal object of his endeavors ever since. His store was at Wilsonville (now Hornbeak), where he was in partnership with his brother-in-law, E. A. Hornbeak.

In 1876 he came out to Texas and located at Denton, where he continued his career as merchant with great success for thirteen years. He also owned a farm on the edge of that town. In the latter part of 1889 he became a resident of Seymour and began merchandising, at first individually and then in partnership with B. F. Smith, as Peery and Smith. They later sold out to the Seymour Commercial Company, of which firm Mr. Peery is still a stockholder although no longer actively engaged in the business.

Captain Peery's connection with public and political affairs began in Tennessee. He has always given much thought to educational problems, and improvement in educational facilities was forced upon him as a burning question and need of the hour in his part of Tennessee after the war, interest in public education being at a low ebb for some time after the paralyzing storm and stress of civil conflict. In Denton he became a member of the board of aldermen, and as a member of the educational committee of that body took an active interest in promoting legislation whereby bonds could be issued for establishing a good public school system and a much-needed school building there. In 1900 Captain Peery was elected president of the school board of Seymour, and as the result of his efficient labors he deserves the title of father of the free public school system in this town. On his initiative bonds for nineteen thousand dollars were voted and turned into cash, and from the proceeds the present public school building was completed two years ago. This structure is one of the splendid ornaments of the town and an honor and credit to the entire people. It is built of gray stone, and cost, with furnishings, between twenty-three and twenty-four thousand dollars. Its equipment is modern and will compare with that of any school in North Texas, and the entire educational system is such that Seymour has gained a most enviable reputation as a center of learning. The public school has eleven grades, and is known as the Seymour Free Public School. Previous to the establishment of this excellent institution Seymour had about as poor a school as could be found in this part of the state. In June, 1904, Captain Peery resigned his office as president of the board, having accomplished his object and one of the best works of his life.

Captain Peery served in two sessions of the state legislature, the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth, 1897-99, and while a member of the law-making body was chairman of the committee on stock and stock-raising and a member of the committees on revenue, taxation, irrigation, judiciary districts, and others. He made a good record as a legislator, and especially proved the practicality of his mind and a sincere desire for the best interests of the state as opposed to the theoretical and tentative measures whose effect was at best of uncertain value. He sided with the conservative element who advocated public expenditures only where money was actually needed and where it would be of permanent benefit.

Captain Peery affiliates with the Masonic order. He has been a member of the Christian church for fifty years. He was married in Tennessee to Miss Anna Hornbeak, of one of the old and highly respected families of that state. Her father, Hon. Pleasant Hornbeak, was a prominent Tennesseean, was a member of the state legislature during the thirties, and previous to that had been doorkeeper for that body when James K. Polk was one of the legislators. Captain and Mrs. Peery have four children: Terry E., who died in infancy; W. O. Peery, who is a newspaper man in Rolfe, Indian Territory; Mrs. Helen Briggs; and Miss Ethel Peery.

MARSHALL F. GRAGG. During the era of Jack county's rapid settlement Marshall F. Gragg located upon a tract of Wood county school land, near Post Oak, and for six years was occupied with its reduction and improvement. Disposing of his school claim in 1883, he located in Howard valley, purchased fifty acres, with a small box house and other primitive improvements, and resumed his efforts as a farmer. After twenty-eight years of industry, enduring adversities and overcoming difficulties, we find him one of the independent and substantial farmers of the valley.

A small team of mules, a wagon and a few swine constituted Mr. Gragg's visible assets when he drove into Jack county, and today he is listed for taxes with three hundred and sixty-five acres exclusive of his personal property. To win this he has provided the management and the labor and nature has done the rest. He was endowed with industry at birth and has passed the characteristic on to his posterity unimpeded and unimpaired. He trained this industrial trait in Coffey county, Tennessee, and has practiced it in Parker county, Texas, as well as in Jack. He came to the Lone Star state in the fall of 1871 and lived near Springtown, in Parker county, until his departure, humbly, yet determinedly, to build him a home in Jack.

Mr. Gragg was born in Polk county, Tennessee, July 8, 1852, a son of Thomas Gragg, who was reared in that state, lived in Greene and Cof-

Subject: Re: Biography of Captain T. H. C. l Peery

To: "Houston W. Briggs, II" <briggsh@cfl.rr.com>

Since the biography of T. H. C. Peery was published in the book in 1906, there is no way to correct that information, as you know. Further postings concerning the biography should be noted "errors in this biography". Once such a bio appears, it seems to become "the gospel truth" to some people with no further research.

Anna S. Hornbeak Peery was the daughter of Pleasant Miller Hornbeak and Elizabeth R. Nunneley........NOT Betsy Claggett. The following:

REPORTED DEATHS / NASHVILLE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

Page 7
E. R. HORNEAK, born May 18, 1810, married Pleasant M. Hornbeak, Dec 31, 1828, died Jan 7, 1887 in residence of her daughter, Mrs. Sallie Gray in Gray's Bend.

Elizabeth R. Nunneley Hornbeak was the daughter of Anderson Nunneley and Martha Baldwin. She was born in Rutherford Co. TN and died in Hickman Co. TN

Will make a copy of the San Quentin prison record for W. O. Peery. It does include his picture..........I have no idea where the Oregon prison record can be found. In fact, I doubt that it still exists. Somewhere I read that Oregon discards the prison records 25 years after the release of a prisoner........seems strange. Also, we have no idea if he was sentenced in an Oregon state or county court for obtaining money under false pretenses, only that he served one year someplace in Oregon.

Will get a copy of the prison record in the mail.

He was apparently named for an early Tennessee jurist, Terry Houston Cahal, although I have not found any connection with the Peery family. It may have simply been that his parents hoped he would be as prominent as the jurist, much in the same way as one of my great grandfathers on my mother's side of the family was named Thomas Jefferson Peery, but was not related to our third president, at least not as far as I can yet determine.

Peery you mention that "Some of the biography seems in error. His father is listed as Robert Peery who who died in 1884 at the age of 90. I have never found a Robert Peery in TN that seems to fit this man."

> I do not know how the article on Capt. Terry H. C. Peery got in genealogymagazine.com. I suspect it is a misprinting of a copy of the biography on T.H.C. Peery that I sent to Shirley Hornbeck when she was researching the Hornbeck family. The biography I sent to Shirley Hornbeck was originally published in A Twentieth Century History and Biographical Record of North and West Texas, Capt. B. B. Paddock, Editor, Illustrated Volume II, The Lewis Publishing Co., Chicago and New York, 1906.Page 316)
> In the original article cited above the third paragraph states "He is a native of Maury county, Tennessee, where he was born in August, 1839. His parents were Robert and Margaret (Harrold) Peery, and his father, a native of Tennessee, was a farmer and died before the war. His mother was also born in Tennessee, and died in 1884 after attaining the advanced age of ninety years." It is T. H. C. Peery's mother, not his father who lived to be 90 years old before she died in 1884.

The reason T.H.C. Peery is found on two census roles for 1860 is probably due to the fact that he was in Hickman County when the census enumerator visited where he was living at that time, and was also in Obion county when the census enumerator visited where he was living then.

The last sentence in the biography cited above states, "Captain and Mrs. Peery have four children: Terry E. who died in infancy; W. O. Peery, who is a newspaperman in Rolfe, Indian Territory; Mrs. Helen Briggs; and Miss Ethel Peery." As my grandparents, Zacharius W. Briggs, and Helen Goodloe Peery Briggs, were married 23 January 1899. the reference to W.O. Peery being a newspaper man in Rolfe, Indian Territory has to be between the time my grandparents were married in 1899 and when the source cited above was published in 1906.

How does one go about correcting this error in the genealogymagazine.com article so that other researchers are not misled?

My great grandparents, T.H.C and Anna Peery, moved from Denton, Denton County, Texas to Seymour in Baylor County, Texas in 1890 and W.O Peery went with them as did his two sisters. So they would not have been found in Denton County after the 1880 census.

On another topic, the parents of Anna Sarah Hornbeak, T.H.C. Peery's wife, were Pleasant Hornbeak, and one source that I have seen says Betsy Claggett, and another Betsy Nunneley. As a Nunneley do you know if Betsy Claggett, and Betsy Nunneley are the same person? Perhaps she was married and widowed before she married Pleasant Hornbeak.

Could you also be kind enough to send me a copy of the information you received from the California State Archives concerning W. O. Peery? The information you included in your e-mail to Randy Hudson on 06 February 2007 seems to indicate that he "Served 1 yr Oregon #5850 for ob. money false pretense" as well as "Forgery: 2 yrs: San Maeto" Does he have a prison record in Oregon as well as California?

Thank you,

NOTES:
Some of this information was taken from the web site of Shirley Hornbeck who has posted a great deal of Hornbeck/Hornbeak info. No sources are given.

For a lengthy biography of Capt. Terry H. C. Peery, go to

http://www.genealogymagazine.com/capterhcpeery.html

Some of the biography seems in error. His father is listed as Robert Peery who who died in 1884 at the age of 90. I have never found a Robert Peery in TN that seems to fit this man. Terry H. C. Peery is living with Margaret in Maury Co. in 1850 (with several other children). Again in 1860, Margaret has a son, age 20, initials....T. H. He is also listed in Obion Co. in 1860 living with the John and Martha Wells family. In 1870, Obion Co. Margaret is living with John and Martha Wells.......

Another item in the biography, states Terry Peery's son, W. O. Peery, is a newspaper man in Rolfe, Indian Territory (now Oklahoma). I have been unable to find any Willie O. / W. O. / William O. Peery on any census after 1880 in Denton Co. TX when "Willie O. Peery" is listed as age 8 years, with the exception of the following:

1910 census / Marin Co. CA / San Rafael Twp / page 198
SAN QUENTIN PRISON

William O. Peery prisoner 38 WM TN TN TN cutter in a jute mill

I have ordered his prison records from the CA State Archives........will let you know if it reveals anything that proves he is the right person and possibly his death location. The age is surely correct.

CAPT. TERRY H. C. PEERY

CAPTAIN TERRY H. C. PEERY, a prominent man of affairs at Seymour, Baylor county, has enjoyed a career of unusual individual success and prestige, and what he has effected in a public-spirited way in promoting the educational progress of Seymour will be felt as an influence for good through all succeeding generations of the town's history. Captain Peery is a man of broad gauge, has large faculties and talents, has been aspiring in his endeavors, has experienced life as most men have not, and as a character is well rounded and influential and a man whose position in the world is elevating and helpful.

He is a native of Maury county, Tennessee, where he was born in August, 1839. His parents were Robert and Margaret (Harrold) Peery, and his father, a native of Tennessee, and died in 1884 after attaining the advanced age of ninety years.

Captain Peery was reared on a farm and received a good common school education. At the beginning of the rebellion he enlisted in Obion county, Tennessee, going out in Company C, Twenty-seventh Tennessee Infantry, of the Confederate army as a non-commissioned officer. After the battle of Shiloh he was commissioned first lieutenant, and at the battle of Murfreesboro was promoted to captain, and thence during the remainder of the war commanded Company C of the Twenty-seventh. In addition to the two battles mentioned he was in all the engagements participated in by the Army of the Tennessee, altogether forty-two in number, the most important being Shiloh, Perryville, Chattanooga, Missionary Ridge, the fighting at Atlanta and vicinity, and Franklin and Nashville. He was wounded at the battle of Shiloh. At the battle of Nashville he commanded the regiment, his superior officers having all been killed or wounded at Franklin. After that engagement his regiment was sent to North Carolina where it took part in the battle of Bentonville, and at the time of final surrender was at Greensboro.

From an officer in the Confederate army he returned home and entered the mercantile business, which has been the principal object of his endeavors ever since. His store was at Wilsonville (now Hornbeak), where he was in partnership with his brother-in-law, E. A. Hornbeak. In 1876 he came out to Texas and located at Denton, where he continued his career as merchant with great success for thirteen years. He also owned a farm on the edge of that town. In the latter part of 1889 he became a resident of Seymour and began merchandising, at first individually and then in partnership with B. F. Smith, as which firm Mr. Peery is still a stockholder although no longer actively engaged in the business.

Captain Peery's connection with public and political affairs began in Tennessee. He has always given much through to educational problems, and improvement in educational facilities was forced upon him as a burning question and need of the hour in his part of Tennessee after the war, interest in public education being at a low ebb for some time after the paralyzing storm and stress of civil conflict. In Denton he became a member of the board of aldermen, and as a member of the educational committee of that body took an active interest in promoting legislation whereby bonds could be issued for establishing a good public school system and a much-needed school building there. In 1900 Captain Peery was elected president of the school board of Seymour, and as the result of his efficient labors he deserves the title of father of the free public school system in this town. On his initiative bond for nine thousand dollars were voted and turned into cash, and form the proceeds the present public school building was completed two years ago. This structure is one of the splendid ornaments of the town and an honor and credit to the entire people. It is built of gray stone, and cost, with furnishings, between twenty-three and twenty-four thousand dollars. Its equipment is modern and will compare with that of any school in North Texas, and the entire educational system is such that Seymour has gained a most enviable reputation as a center of learning. The public school has eleven grades, and is known as the Seymour Free Public School. Previous to the establishment of the excellent institution Seymour had about as poor a school as could be found in the part of the state. In June, 1904, Captain Peery resigned his office as president of the board, having accomplished his object and one of the best works in life.

Captain Peery served in two sessions of the state legislature, the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth, 1897-99, and while a member of the lawmaking body was chairman of the committee on stock and stock-raising and a member of the committees on revenue, taxation, irrigation, judiciary districts, and others. He made a good record as a legislator, and especially proved the practicality of his mind and a sincere desire for the best interests of the state as opposed to the theoretical and tentative measures whose effect was at best of uncertain value. He sided with the conservative element who advocated public expenditures only where money was actually needed and where it would be of permanent benefit.

Captain Peery affiliates with the Masonic order. He has been a member of the Christian church for fity years. He was married in Tennessee to Miss Anna Hornbeak, of one of the old and highly respected families of that state. Her father, Hon. Pleasant Hornbeak, was a prominent Tennesseean, was a member of the state legislature during the thirties, and previous to that had been doorkeeper for that body when James K. Polk was one of the legislators. Captain and Mrs. Peery have four children: Terry E., who died in infancy; W. O. Peery, who is a newspaper man in Rolfe, Indian Territory; Mrs. Helen Briggs; and Miss Ethel Peery.

Mary,

I found some research that you posted on my Great Grandfather, THC Peery. Like your comments, I can not find any information on his father, Robert Peery in Maury County, Tennessee or neighboring counties who was married to Margaret Harrold. Have you found any additional information since you posted this information?

You also said the you were trying to check out prison records for Willie O Peery. Did you locate any information?

Your posting about Willie :

William O. Peery prisoner 38 WM TN TN TN cutter in a jute mill

"I have ordered his prison records from the CA State Archives........will let you know if it reveals anything that proves he is the right person and possibly his death location. The age is surely correct."

I would apprefciate your sharing any additional information that you have located on the Peery family. Thank you

Note: For a lengthy biography of Capt. Terry H. C. Peery, go to

http://www.genealogymagazine.com/capterhcpeery.html

Some of the biography seems in error. His father is listed as Robert Peery who who died in 1884 at the age of 90. I have never found a Robert Peery in TN that seems to fit this man. Terry H. C. Peery is living with Margaret in Maury Co. in 1850 (with several other children). Again in 1860, Margaret has a son, age 20, initials....T. H. He is also listed in Obion Co. in 1860 living with the John and Martha Wells family. In 1870, Obion Co. Margaret is living with John and Martha Wells.......

Another item in the biography, states Terry Peery's son, W. O. Peery, is a newspaper man in Rolfe, Indian Territory (now Oklahoma). I have been unable to find any Willie O. / W. O. / William O. Peery on any census after 1880 in Denton Co. TX when "Willie O. Peery" is listed as age 8 years, with the exception of the following:

1910 census / Marin Co. CA / San Rafael Twp / page 198 SAN QUENTIN PRISON

William O. Peery prisoner 38 WM TN TN TN cutter in a jute mill

I have ordered his prison records from the CA State Archives........will let you know if it reveals anything that proves he is the right person and possibly his death location. The age is surely correct.

(on the 1910 census of Baylor Co. TX, Terry H. C. Peery, age 70, is listed as the Mayor of the town of Seymour)

Shirley,
Enjoying using your Hornbeck/etal site while doing my research.
I am interested in one of your postings concerning the family of Terry H. C. Peery who married Anna S. Hornbeak (dau of Pleasant M. and Elizabeth R. "Betsy" Nunneley Hornbeak). You list a son for Terry H. C. and Anna as:

> Willie Osborne Peery
> born / 31 May 1872
> died / 3 Jun 1912

I am trying very hard to locate his place of death and wonder where you obtained the date of death. It might lead me to someone who could tell me where he died.
Might mention that there is a very flowery biography concerning Capt. Terry H. C. Peery at:

> http://www.genealogymagazine.com/capterhcpeer.htm/

Thanks much for your help with William O. Peery's death location.

I am researching all of the children of Pleasant and Elizabeth Nunneley Hornbeak. Elizabeth "Betsy" Nunneley and my husband's great-great grandfather Joseph Alexander Nunneley were sister and brother and children of Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunneley.

As I finish my research on each individual child of Pleasant and Elizabeth Hornbeak, I have been sending the material with proofs to Gay Mathas (lgm2002@bellsouth.net) and she is posting it to the Rootsweb site "Obion Co. TN Branches & Twigs". I have been able to add a great deal of information to her site, especially the unknown or unlisted grandchildren of Pleasant Hornbeak + plus two daughters who married before 1850 and had never been listed as children.....Sarah Hornbeak married George Washington Gray and Martha Jane Hornbeak married William Montgomery.

As far as William Osborne Peery is concerned, I have been unable to find any info or census records for him, nor do I find a Rolfe, Indian Territory location. The only William O. Peery I have found anywhere is on the 1910 census, Marin Co. CA, Rafael Twp, page 198. He is age 38, born in TN, as are both of his parents. He is a prisoner in San Quentin. The age and place of birth are as they should be for W. O. Peery, son of Terry and Anna Hornbeak Peery. I have contact the CA State Archives and they have been searching the San Quentin records for three weeks with absolutely no luck on even finding him ever serving any time as a prisoner. They are unable to explain that, since the records are apparently good for San Quentin. I suggest that even if this is the same William Osborne Peery, it seems quite possible that since Terry H. C. Peery was a Texas State Representative and in 1910, mayor of Seymour, TX, he may have had means to have a pardon issued for his son........of course, this is just a thought. The Archives is in the process of checking the governor's records at this time for any mention of this W. O. Peery.

You might check out the Gay Mathis site at Rootsweb to see the additional Hornbeak names I have added to the family of Pleasant M. Hornbeak. I still have more work to do...........

1948: Lois Welsh Bushart

Lois Jeanette Welsh was crowned Miss Memphis 1948 and advanced directly to the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City. In the early years of the Miss America pageant, select cities could send representatives to Atlantic City in which Memphis was chosen. Lois placed in the Top 15. For her talent, she sang "Giannini Mia." Her chaperone was Mrs. Johnson from Brys Department Store in Memphis. Brys was a major sponsor for Miss Memphis and supplied her wardrobe for a year.

After graduating from Central High School, Lois attended St. John University for a year and transferred to Memphis State University where she earned her degree in Music and English. Lois earned enough money and scholarships to pay her education in full! As a keepsake, she purchased a piano with her Miss Memphis earnings.

In 1949, Lois married James Bushart of Fulton, KY, a graduate from UT Medical School. IN 1952, she and her husband relocated to Lawton, OK where Lois was a homemaker to their four children.

Lois, retired and widowed, resides in Lawton with her dog, Sinbad, and enjoys needlwork, reading, and exercising. She has nine grandchildren.

P.M. Hornbeak was married to a Nunley. They lived in Centerville, Tn. He operated a plantation and owned a large store. He had a number of children two of which were killed during the Civil War, one was named Pleasant. I think that one of the girls married a Gray who was a successful banker in Dallas. Five of the boys including my grandfather, John Lawson Hornbeak moved to what is now Hornbeak, Tn. One was a Dr. John, who served in the Civil War and another was a Dr. Sam who also served in the war. Eli became a wealthy planter in Lake Co. I am not aware that P.M. Hornbeak had a second wife. if you have further info, please forward.
There was a Clagett famiy in Hornbeak, but I'm not aware of a marriage. Pleasant Miller Hornbeak and his wife(Nunley) died shortly after the Civil War and are buried in Centerville. He had around 12 kids by Eliz.
Nunley.

STELLA YATES

Services for Stella Hornbeak Yates were held Sunday with the Rev. Ronald Allen officiating. Mrs. Yates, long time resident of Fulton, died Friday at Parkway Manor Nursing Home. She was 104.

Active pallbearers were Harry Bushart, Harry Nunley Bushart, J. C. Suggs, John Bowers, Charles Bushart and Raymond Andrus.

Memorial Record of Western Kentucky, Lewis Publishing Company, 1904, pp 651-652 [Graves]

John C. YATES was born at Pryorsburg, Graves county, Kentucky, the 16th of November, 1866, a son of John M. and Arena (Prince) YATES. The father was born in Tennessee, as was also his father, Tirah YATES, while the mother was a native of Weakley county, Tennessee, and was a daughter of Joshua Prince, of that commonwealth. Mr. and Mrs. YATES were married in Graves county, Kentucky, where the father still resides and follows agricultural pursuits. The mother was called to the home beyond in November, 1900, passing away at the age of fifty-six years. During the Civil war Mr. YATES served as a Confederate soldier, was a Democrat in his political affiliations, and both he and his wife were members of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

John C. YATES was reared to the life of a farmer boy, and received an academical education. When eighteen years of age he began the study of medicine, under the preceptorship of Dr. John L. Dismukes, of Mayfield, and later became a student in the University of Louisville, in which he was graduated in 1892. For six and a half years thereafter he was engaged in the practice of medicine at Bellerton, Hickman county, and on the expiration of that period located in Fulton, where he has gained an enviable prestige as one of the most able and successful practitioners of medicine in the community. He is a member of the Southwest Kentucky Medical Society, and his political support is given to the Democracy, while his religious views connect him with the Methodist church.

On the 24th of December, 1900, Dr. YATES was united in marriage to Stella D. Hornbake, a native daughter of Kentucky.

Mary Nunneley.
No, there are no researchers, that we know of, in this area. However, obituary lookups are done by our local genealogical society if you provide a complete date of death. If you go to the genealogy page of our website, there is a link to the listings for Sunset Memorial. The fee is $5.00 a lookup and includes one photocopy. Please send your information, the lookup fee, an SASE and an e-mail address for communicating to Southwest Oklahoma Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 148, Lawton OK 73502.

I wish to obtain two obituaries for family members buried in Sunset Memorial Gardens. Do you have a list of names of researchers that I might hire to obtain copies of these obituaries. One is in 1997 and the other 2003.
